- Brian Schidaker is our guest speaker running for Clinton County Prosecutor. He gave us a background on growing up involved with realtors in Clinton County and his background on beginning work in prosecution for 10 years, and then moving to work for Wilmington City and has since then. Big on constitutional and property rights and discussed crime having direct involvement with the real estate market. Discussed the missing component of punishment or deterrents from the smallest of crimes.
- Katie Wilkin is our other guest speaker running for Clinton County Prosecutor. She has worked at prosecutors office since she got out of college and came back to town. She discussed the drug epidemic along with other crimes and how convictions are being dealt with now. She discussed updates to the laws and how the judges have to interact with these laws and find creative ways to continue updating these.
 - She answered questions about the STARR program and about the multiple changes to the laws in the past 5 years as mentioned during her talk.
- Connie asked for a motion to adjourn, Sue Walker approved.
