

Bill Fruth
President, Policom Corporation
Co-founder, Balanced Budget Amendment Task Force

For the past fifteen years, William H. Fruth has served as an economic development consultant for communities throughout the United States.

He is the President of Policom Corporation; an independent economics research firm located Palm City, Florida, which specializes in studying the dynamics of local economies.

POLICOM determines if an economy is growing or declining, what is causing this to happen, and offers ideas and solutions to improve the situation.

Fruth has personally evaluated the data for more than 700 local economies in the United States, created more than 200 economic and community studies, and has provided presentations and workshops for state-national associations and community forums in 37 states.

From 1988 to 1995, Fruth served as Vice President of a major industrial land development company, directing the development and marketing of a 500-acre corporate park in the West Palm Beach, Florida area.

Previously he was President of the Business Development Board of Palm Beach County and during that tenure was named Florida's Economic Development Professional of the Year in 1987.

From 1980 to 1984, Bill served in a full time capacity of Mayor of Tiffin, Ohio. During this time, he was named one of the "Five Outstanding Young Men in Ohio" and was heavily involved in economic and community development statewide.

Fruth has been recognized by the Florida Administrative Court as an expert witness regarding local economies.
