

FAQ: What causes odor in the hot water?

The most common cause of odor in hot water is the water heater. If your cold water smells fine, check your water heater to ensure that the temperature setting is correct. Water heaters also need to be maintained (see manufacturer's instructions). Please call the office at 760-247-7330 if the odor persists or if it is present in both the hot and cold water.