

Kasen Ryan McDow

(February 18, 2010 - June 27, 2014)

“Kasen Man” McDow, 4, of Mooringsport, LA, passed away Friday, June 27, 2014. Funeral services will be held at 11 am, Tuesday, July 1, 2014, at Oil City United Pentecostal Church in Oil City, LA, officiating Rev. Kent Rhoads, assisting Rev. Rodney Warren. Burial will follow at Lakeview Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Oil City, LA. There will be a time of visitation on Monday June 30th from 6-8 pm at Oil City United Pentecostal Church. Kasen was born on February 18,

2010, in Shreveport, LA, to Leslie Ryan McDow and Kisha Entrekin McDow. He was an outgoing child who never met a stranger. Kasen was known for playing wide open or sitting still there wasn't an in-between for him. He was always playing the “good guy” or the “super hero”. When he was busy playing the “super hero” his guns and swords were his weapons of choice, and he was always ready for the next battle or adventure. When he was sitting still he enjoyed playing on his I pad. Kasen couldn't leave mud puddles alone, he enjoyed stomping and playing in them, he stayed in mud all the time. His partner was always his cousin Kyndal. Kasen was preceded in death by his maw maw Edna Gibson. He is survived by his loving parents, Leslie and Kisha McDow of Mooringsport, LA, his sister Sierra McDow, brother Clark McDow, his maternal grandparents Ricky “Poppa” and Linda “Mema” Entrekin, his fraternal grandparents “Granny” Grace McDow and “Paw Paw” Buster, great grandfather Harvey “Paw Hardy” Gibson, great grandmother Jessie Herrington, great grandparents Roy and Francis McDow, aunt Nini Ballard, and numerous cousins, aunts and uncles. Pallbearers will be Ronald Ballard, Kevin Dryder, Ryan Brown, John Brown III, Roy Wells III and Leslie McDow. Honorary pallbearers will include Chuck Sedrick, Rob Smith and Aaron Blaine. In lieu of flowers please donate to Oil City United Pentecostal Church “Operation Pay Off”.
