

Juror – Nathan Jones

is the Curator at the Bryan Museum in Galveston. A native Texan, he grew up in Spring. His academic training focused on Material Culture and Museum Studies, and he received his M.A. in Public History from Texas State University in 2015. He has worked and spoken at institutions across the nation, including: Colonial Williamsburg, The Henry Ford, and The Museum of Fine Arts Houston, Bayou Bend. His most recent exhibition at the museum: Eyes of Texas: A Century of Artistic Visions, on display now. He views these efforts as part of his vocation and chooses to focus on exploring the intersections between art and history. At the center of his work is a simple goal, sharing the past to inspire the present.

Artists Open to all artists over the age of 15 who are eligible to participate in member shows in Galveston Art League, regardless of membership status.

Entries

Framed works larger than 24 inches in any direction must use Plexiglas or acrylic. See website for full description of criteria.
4. Not to exceed 4' X 5' and all work must be able to be carried and/or hung easily by two people.

Artists must adhere to the above criteria and the published dates and times. Works that do not meet these criteria will not be hung, even if inadvertently accepted into the show.
