Legion Commanders Message

I want to thank everyone who made our Memorial Day such a special day. The weather waited as long as it could before getting us wet. I can't say this enough, but I so appreciate each and everyone of you for your dedication. Now we have our upcoming parade on July 4th and, as usual, I am sure we will have a good turnout for that! Of course, the weather is a big IF.

Thank you again and, as always, it is my pleasure to serve as your commander.

Ron

SAL Commanders Message

Hello Legion Family,

Not a lot of news for July but we need members to represent us in the parade on the 4th. Next 2025 memberships begin again so let's get after it and speedily renew. It's easier for everyone involved. Also The Son's have made a commitment to pick up taco Tuesday duties from the Auxiliary every 5th Tuesday. Our first one being this July. Come visit us and keep us on our toes! God Bless America!

Commander Todd

Auxiliary President Message

Happy 4th of July or Independence Day! We get to celebrate this National Holiday because of the sacrifices of our many Veterans and our active-duty military men and women. Thank them for their service! I hope you can enjoy the activities of the day; fly your flag, participate in a parade, watch the fireworks, ask a Veteran to join you.

As the new ALA Unit 164 President I would personally like to thank our Unit Officers, Chairman, and members for their dedication to all of the activities of the American Legion Family. I hope to see you at Monday Burger night, Taco Tuesday, Wednesday Bingo, Friday on the patio, or just out and about.

Remember no meetings in July and August.

For Service not Self,
Nancy Anderson - President
