The Apple Doesn't Fall Far From The Tree

Scripture Reading - 1 Peter 2:21-25
WWJD – Ever wonder what our lives would really look like if we wo practice what we believe, preach and sing?	ould
2 Timothy 3:12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus suffer persecution.	s shall
Jesus is an example of how to live right in spite of persecution	L
He is the perfect S
He is the perfect S	etely
faithful to God and still experience unjust suffering
5. When accused He did not attack others or get a	>*
6. The intense but comparatively trifling amount of su	uffering
believers experience in this life will result in an inf	_
greater weight of g in the life to come (2 Cor. 4	4:17–18
He is the perfect S $-24$ 5. If Christ is not my substitute then I am a condemned
6. Christ took the full punishment of suffering and seg from the Father for the weight of the s of th
7. We are able to live apart from sin's dominating po
8. Thank God for his salvation. He has broken the p_ of sin in our lives.
He is the perfect S	3
4. Sheep are helpless without a shepherd
5. All who are saved come under the care, provision a	and protection of the gshepherd.
6. Through Christ's suffering, He became our e our substitute and shepherd.
What a great God we serve. We know He is watching out fo shepherd watches his sheep. No need to be timid in standing u
Lord in the world. Nothing will happen to us that the Shepherd	- seeing. When we suffer for Christ we should count it an honor showing that we are like the pattern of Jesus in handling suffer showing that we are like the pattern of Jesus in nandling suffer	ring.

Your notes here
	į.		ACCULING S. R. STATE
				- An - S. 18
V
		·
а				2-1-A1
_		_
				-
		9
				nere de la composition della c
			v
		9
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
			**************************************	