Activities for All Ages

Welcome to worship.

“Who is Jesus?” People who heard him teach in his own hometown asked that question. They said, “Isn’t this the carpenter, Mary’s son? Where did he get his power and wisdom?” They didn’t accept Jesus as who he really was.

So “Who is Jesus to us?” Search in the puzzle for these names and descriptions of Jesus...

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

From the dust of the earth, the Holy One breathed us into life.
Through the breath of God we are all connected.

Shaped in their image, God formed us with a purpose:

To create

To serve

To tend

To protect

To love

That life may flourish in all its forms,

May the Spirit of the Living God be manifest in us! Amen.

YOUTH MESSAGE

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 2:1-5

The Voice said, “Mere mortal, stand up, and I will speak with you!” As it spoke, spirit entered me and raised me onto my feet, and I heard these words: “Mere mortal, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that revolted against me; they and their ancestors have been rebelling against me to this very day. The people to whom I send you are defiant and stubborn. You are to say to them, ‘Thus says Sovereign YHWH!’ And whether they listen or they don’t—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has come among them.

The word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

PSALM Psalm 123

I lift up my eyes to you,

you who sit enthroned in the heavens!

As the eyes of a dog look to the hand of its owner—

as the eyes of attendants look to the hand of those they serve—

So our eyes look to you, YHWH, until you show us your mercy!

Have mercy on us, YHWH, have mercy!

we have endured so much contempt.

We have endured far too much ridicule from the wealthy,
too much contempt from the arrogant!

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 12:2-10

I know someone who fourteen years ago was caught up in the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know—only God knows. And I know that this person—whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know, only God knows—was caught up to paradise to hear words that cannot be uttered, words that no one may speak. About this person I will boast, but I will do no boasting about myself, unless it be about my weaknesses. And even if I were to boast, it wouldn't be foolish of me, because I am speaking the truth. But I refrain, so that no one will think more of me than is justified by what I do or say. Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, in order to keep me from becoming conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh—a messenger of Satan to beat me—to keep me from exalting myself! Three times I begged God that it might leave me. And God said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I would rather boast about my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may dwell in me. So I am content with weakness, with mistreatment, with distress, with persecutions and difficulties for the sake of Christ; when I am powerless, it is then that I am strong.

The word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

GOSPEL READING Mark 6:1-13

Jesus came into his own town, followed by the disciples. When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and the many listeners were astonished and said, "Where did he learn all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted, and these miracles that are performed by his hands? Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joses and Judah and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?" They found these things to be stumbling blocks. Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometowns and among their own relatives and in their own households." And he could work no miracles there, apart from laying his hands upon a few sick people and healing them; their lack of faith astounded him. He made the rounds of the neighboring villages instead, and spent the time teaching.

Then Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs, giving them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff – no bread, no bag, no money in their belts. They were to wear sandals but, he added, “Do not take a spare tunic.” And Jesus said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave town. Any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you leave it, shake off the dust from the soles of your feet as a testimony against them.” And so they set off, proclaiming repentance as they went. They cast out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY ELW 396 Spirit of Gentleness (vs 1, 3 & 4)

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

ELW 546 To Be Your Presence

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

God of grace and powerful weakness,

at times your prophets were ignored, rejected, belittled, and unwelcome. Trusting that we, too, are called to be prophets, fill us with your Spirit, and support us by your gentle hands, that we may persevere in speaking your word and living our faith. As you have nourished us in this meal, now strengthen us to love the world with the same powerful grace. Amen.
