February 21, 2014 Updates

---

Greetings!

We hope that you are surviving this long winter and are enjoying the Winter Olympics.

The MTNA National Conference will be in Chicago this year. This looks to be another great conference. If you haven't registered, check this link for details,
<https://members.mtna.org/conference2014/index.html>

National Conference Information

- The Ohio State Dinner will be held on Sunday March 23 at 7:00 PM at a restaurant to be disclosed. Please check the bulletin board near the Conference Registration Desk for details.
- If you are presenting, a resident of Ohio or know an OhioMTA member that is presenting, please contact Richard Van Dyke at dvdpiano@zoomtown.com so that a list may be compiled for the OhioMTA membership that will be posted in the March 2014 E-notes.
- Please forward any pictures of interest involving the OhioMTA Membership from the National Conference that may be used to enhance our website and newsletter to Richard Van Dyke.
- Remember to sign up for the MTNA Gala to show your support for our two MTNA Fellows, Christine Steiner and Eileen Weber.

Buckeye Auditions

All information regarding the State Competition is available on the website at <http://www.ohiomta.org/buckeye-auditions.html> , including forms. Remember to check with your local district for the District Competition deadline. This year the state competition will be held at Malone University on June 13-14, 2014.

MTNA Division Directors Election

Christine Steiner has been nominated for the East Central Division Director - Elect. Please show your support by voting in the ongoing election. You may vote on line at <http://www.mtna.org/about-mtna/elections/>

Pre-Conference E-notes will be sent prior to March 15, 2014. We hope OhioMTA will be well represented.

Sincerely,
Dr. Richard Van Dyke, DMA, NCTM
OhioMTA President
