

RISING STAR Parent's Code of Conduct

1. Encourage your child and other participants in RISING STAR soccer to abide by the rules and, in general, emphasize sportsmanship ahead of winning.
2. Explain players' code of conduct to your children and encourage them to follow it.
3. Encourage your child to play fairly and to the best of his/her ability and, when he/she does so, to provide praise and encouragement regardless of the results of those efforts.
4. Encourage your child to respect his teammates, coaches, team manager, referees, and opponents.
5. Encourage your child to refrain from dangerous play during games and practices.
6. Cheering for your child is great, but please refrain from coaching from the sidelines or near the goal.
7. Refrain from criticism of coaches, referees, or opponents during games and in the presence of your child or other children. Constructive criticism, when you feel necessary, should be directed towards your teams' coaches in private.
8. When able, assist with tasks as requested by coaches or managers (e.g., putting nets away after games, providing half-time snacks, etc).
9. Ensure attendance at games and practices and if absences are unavoidable, to give adequate notice to coaches or manager.

I (We) understand that improper behavior at a match, practice or other RISING STAR Club sponsored activity may result in a parent being asked to leave the field or the event by a referee, RISING STAR Coach or RISING STAR Board Member in accordance with The Laws of the Game and the specific rules of the League(s) in which your team is a member.

We understand that (upon review) RISING STAR can, and will if necessary, suspend our individual privilege to watch our child play should we behave in a manner contrary to this Code of Conduct or otherwise offensive.
