To the Mangohick Baptist Church Family and Friends,

We thank and Praise God for you the precious beloved of God and for all that you have done, and are doing for the Kingdom of our Lord. Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad knowing that He who has begun a good work in us will see it through until the day of Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God Almighty and to you the Mangohick Baptist Church Family for a bless Homecoming Day and a tremendously blessed week of revival. Special thanks to Rev. Irving L. Woolfolk, Jr. and Dr. Robert A. Diggs Sr., for proclaiming God's Word with power and understanding. Furthermore, special thanks to all whose work made these Ministry Moments such a wonderful blessing. Special thanks for your support during our various Ministry Outreaches in August. Also, we ask all that can to plan on attending our Ministry Outreach to Mount Calvary Baptist Church on September 6th.

Please join me in praying the Lords blessings, protection and safe keeping upon the children of Mangohick and the surrounding community as they have started the 2017-2018 School Year. Furthermore, we take this time to render Special Thanks to the Youth Ministry for ensuring that all children would return to school with new book bags and school supplies.

I'm delighted to announce that we will resume Bible Study and Prayer Service starting on September 20th. We will start walking through the Book of 1st John and focus our attention on the Reality of the Jesus. Always seek to do the right thing by following the instructions of God. Those instructions may come through His Word, the inner voice of the Holy Spirit, or through men of God in life. Lastly continue to pray one for another and especially for those who have lost everything, been displaced, experience trauma, and catastrophic lost from Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the other Gulf States affected by the Hurricane.

Love you much,

Pastor and First Lady Campbell

Ancient Wisdom for Modern Money Management Money, Money, Money

Money can be a helpful tool and a valuable resource, but it makes for a lousy boss. Ask people their opinion about money, and you'll be left with a variety of answers: they love it, hate it, spend it, save it, want it, work for it, beg for it, borrow it, steal it, invest it, and give it. Sure, we need money, but many of us are often left weary and frustrated when it comes to our finances. We often feel managed by the very thing we are trying to manage.

But what if the richest and wisest man who ever lived offered a free financial seminar? No gimmicks. No get-rich-quick schemes. Just practical life principles for managing money?

- How should you get it?
- What should you do with it?
- What about long-term investments?
- How can you bless others at the same time?

Through the writings of King Solomon, God has provided us with all of these answers and more. In this study, we will examine principles from the ancient wisdom literature of the Old Testament to provide clear direction for money management.

August 7, 2016 – Manage Money Diligently

The Passage: Proverbs 31:13-21

The Point: Act responsibly with what God has given you

August 14, 2016 – Invest Money Wisely

The Passage: Ecclesiastes 11:1-6

The Point: When it comes to your money, plan and invest wisely

August 21, 2016 – Give Money Generously

The Passage: Proverbs 11:23-29

The Point: Use what you have to invest in the lives of others

For all choir members that will be singing with the Combined Voices for this Benefit for Mr. James Carrington, please text your name/church to Perry Carrington (see number below) ASAP. He has advised that there will be a brief (very brief) rehearsal on the day of the service (@3pm); and the songs will be those that we are all familiar with.
