

2020 USATF Hershey National Youth Indoor Championships Canceled

Indianapolis — The 2020 USATF Hershey Youth National Indoor Championships set to be held at the Ocean Breeze Athletic Complex on Staten Island, New York, March 20-22, have been canceled.

“Due to concerns over the increasing public health risk with the COVID-19 virus in and around New York City, the local organizing committee thought it prudent to cancel the event,” said USATF CEO Max Siegel. “We support the decision and continue to monitor this unprecedented situation in our country. The welfare of our members remains a top priority.”

Entry fees will be refunded.
