Who is Debby Quigley

Debby trains, teaches, and competes in agility, rally, nose work, and obedience. She started off teaching her own dog just the basics and went on to competing and teaching dog sports. She finds a great deal of satisfaction in helping people achieve their goals with their dogs.

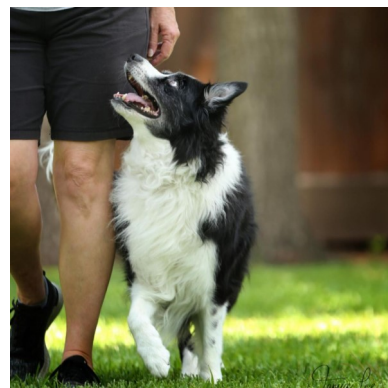

Debby has earned multiple AKC OTCH's, Mach's, PACH's, TD's, as well as competing in herding, fieldwork, nose work, scent work, and freestyle.

Her accomplishments include:

- ♦ Over 200 AKC Obedience High in Trials
- ♦ Over 150 AKC Obedience High Combined
- ♦ Multiple 200's
- ♦ Three times placed at AKC Invitational
- ♦ Multiple wins and placements at AKC National events.
- ♦ Numerous National rankings
- ♦ Her students have won and placed in national events of different venues as well as many HIT, HCs, 200's

When it comes to proofing, Debby wrote the book! Author of "Success is in the Proofing"

Her knowledge and resources provide the opportunity to view step-by-step instructions with visual demonstrations of skills that create great performance and companion dogs. You will be amazed how the dog training techniques, concepts, and philosophy I can show and teach you will enhance your relationship with your dog, and subsequently your experience in training and showing.
