FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Georgian Triangle Music Festival and the Town of Wasaga Beach Present: “Battle of The Sands” a Band and Singer/Songwriter competition.

WASAGA BEACH – January 16th, 2017- Georgian Triangle Music Festival and the Town of Wasaga Beach will be joining forces, to bring a new event to Wasaga Beach in 2017. Battle of the Sands, is a new band and singer/songwriter competition that gives musical acts the opportunity to compete for a chance to win some great prizes, and play some great events throughout Wasaga Beach this spring and summer.

Battle of the Sands will be accepting entries January 15th, to February 15th, 2017, and are encouraging musical acts that are interested to sign up and participate, by engaging their fans to vote for them through to the Semi-Finals. Video submissions are being accepted for a chance to qualify for our Semi-Final shows May 12th and 13th, 2017 at The Beacon Restaurant. Voting will commence throughout the month of March, and the top 8 bands and singer/songwriters will be selected to perform one of these two dates in May. April 15th, 2017 semi-finalists will be announced through our website, Facebook, and press release. The top 4 bands and singer/songwriters from our semi-final will move on to the final on June 17th, 2017 at the Wasaga Beach Waterfront Festival.

Participating acts not only have the opportunity to engage their fans for votes on social media, the winning band and singer/songwriter will win a performance slot at Georgian Triangle Music Festival on July 1st at the “Main Street Market”. Registration details, full prize and sponsor listing, along with Rules and Regulations are available on our website.
