Principal: Dr Mark Van Gundy was born again in 1975, when he had a real encounter with the Lord. He answered a call to ministry in 1976 and graduated from Christ for the Nations Institute in Dallas, Texas in 1978. He then worked in England for a couple of years helping start a bible school. Dr Mark and his wife started Church of Destiny in Tottenham, London, England, in 1996 and help with a fellowship of ministers and ministries around the world called Destiny Global Network. Mark is also a part of the CMN (Christian Men’s network) team here in the UK and Portugal. He has ministered in Costa Rica, Ghana, Nigeria, USA, Brazil, India Portugal and around the U.K.

Dean: Reverend Charles Mugenyi graduated from a prestigious London Baptist college in 2010 with a Theology degree before taking on his current vocation as pastor of Woodberry Down Baptist church in north London. His earlier ambition to pursue further studies in Pharmacology, after his Industrial Chemistry degree (1994), came to halt when he felt God’s call ‘to proclaim the excellencies of Him who rescued [him] from out of darkness into His marvellous light’. Prior to getting into full-time church ministry, Charles worked in marketing and for an international non-governmental human rights organisation. He is married to Kaye and they have one son.

Administrator: Cherron Inko-Tariah MBE, is a former Civil Servant. She has advised senior ministers on a broad range of policies including the Big Society, race and faith matters, and the recovery effort following the summer riots of 2011. She has also worked as a youth minister where she encouraged young people to experience "NO LIMITS" in Christ and was the founder and leader of TDM - a ministry that used performing arts to spread the Gospel. She has been married to Pr. Charles Inko-Tariah for over 20 years and was awarded an MBE for her services to HM Government and the community.
Head of Student Ministries & Outreaches: Pastor Martin Berry grew up in North London. After a challenging childhood, God encountered him powerfully by the power of his Holy Spirit and turned him around to become a spiritual father and mentor to young people. He has led many young people to Christ and they have responded to and been impacted by his ministry. He is a true example of Elijah’s ministry in this generation; ‘the fathers turning their hearts to the children and the children turning their hearts to the fathers’. Martin is the founder and Pastor of Saved 2 Serve Youth Alliance and the Serve 2 Save Kingdom Network. He has an apostolic ministry and is always looking at various ways to reach the lost. Martin’s ministry specialises in outreaches and preparing youth for different works of service. Martin is currently pioneering some new ministry initiatives in Europe and the USA.

Chaplain and Head of Prison Ministry: Reverend Gavin Jacobs grew up and lived in Cape Town, South Africa. His community was economically deprived, racially divided, and affected by gangs and drugs. He felt God calling Him to work with gangs and prisons and using his knowledge and experience, Gavin became a specialist in this area. He is also a gang profiler, mediator, and facilitator. He trains trainers to work with young people and is a mentor to many youth involved in gangs. He has a heart for lost youth and is very passionate about changing lives. He created the first Youth Champions Awards in London with the support of the Islington Borough Commander and Islington youth services. He facilitated anti-gun, anti-knife, and violent crime workshops in prisons, pupil referrals units, schools, colleges and universities. In addition, Gavin is experienced in conflict mediation and gang mediation, and sits on various advisory boards for the Police Service.
