

@artavoicestaunton

Art: A Voice

11th Annual Mental Health Art Show

CALL FOR ARTWORK: Now accepting artwork from anyone who has used art to cope with or manage their mental health challenges

Art will be on display from April 13th- May 12th 2018
Located at the R.R. Smith Center for Art and History
20 S. New Street, Staunton, VA

Public Reception
Friday April 13th
6:00pm- 8:00pm

Guidelines

- Any medium accepted
- You must include your name, contact information, title of pieces and medium used along with a signed consent form (link on Facebook page). You can choose whether to have your name displayed or anonymous on the form).
- All works must be original, and in good condition.
- All works must be matted or framed.
 - Scholarships available for financial hardship (contact Laura Tuomisto)
- A maximum of 3 works by each artist will be selected.
- Works inciting racism, or promoting drugs, sex, or violence will not be considered.
- Submission does not guarantee acceptance.
- Work shown at Shenandoah Augusta Art Council events in the past year will not be accepted.
- Art must be submitted by Friday, March 2nd 2018.

Submit art work to one of these locations:

- R.R. Smith Center Front Desk: M-F 10am-5pm Attn: Beth Hodge
- Western State Hospital Lobby: 8am-8pm: Attn: Rachel Isak
- Mental Health America: By appointment 540-886-7181
- Shenandoah Art Therapy: By appointment 540-255-1458,
laura@shenarttherapy.com

Questions: Please contact Laura Tuomisto 540-255-1458 or laura@shenarttherapy.com