

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

James McGuire

Inducted in 2017

Jim was enamored with the guitar and later became passionate about jazz and classical guitar. He taught guitar for more than 40 years and his many compositions for classical guitar have received frequent performances and some have been recorded by internationally recognized artists.

