

Hebner, Truman

Truman E. (Heb) Hebner died April 16, 2002, at his home in Orlando, Fla., after a long illness. He was born Sept. 10, 1919, in Detroit and lived in Bad Axe and Vassar until 1965 when he and his wife of 42 years moved to Florida. Heb, as he was known to his many friends, owned Hebner Block Co. and worked in construction for many years. In Florida, he worked as maintenance supervisor for Super Foods Co. until his retirement in 1983. Besides his wife Loretta, he is survived by her sons, Walt Logan of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Doug Logan of Belleville, Ill.; his daughters, Tamie Schelke of Bad Axe and Tracie Couzens of Tucson, Ariz.; five granddaughters; one grandson; a sister, Elaine Wensley of Ellensburg, Wash.; and several nieces and nephews. He was a member of Tuskawilla Presbyterian Church where memorial services took place on Saturday, April 20, 2002.
