St. Denis K of C Council 1756-Division 1 Top Council/#2 Overall In State! Thanks to the support of the community and the hard work of council members, the St. Denis Council did well at the Ohio State Council level this year. They earned the Honor Council Award, Compass Award for Charity, Anchor Award for Administrative Requirements, Chalice Award for maxing out the State General Program, State Deputy's Award for making the Supreme membership quota and had the most new members in the state! The council was named the Division 1 Council of Distinction as the top large council in the State and named the #2 Overall Council in the State based on a tiebreaker. Fr. Jim Simmons was named the K of C Chaplain of the Year for the Cincinnati Archdiocese! Congratulations!
