How did you learn of Lucky Dog Barks & Recreation?

Please fill out a Dog Information card for each dog you wish to bring to Lucky Dog.

To whom it may concern,

Due to the nature of dog-play environments, all prospective clients are asked to read and review our following contract and initial each line when the pet owner has read, understood, and agreed to the information here within. Natural risks such as injury, disease, illness, death, property damage, and unforeseen incidents are possible. Dogs will play with one another with teeth and claws. Scratches, punctures, and hair loss are normal aftermaths of dog-to-dog activities. Over-exertion, exposure to heat and other natural elements, and disease associated with physical activity are inherent. We also manage our play yards using non-invasive methods such as water spray bottles, time-outs, and temporary detainment (holding a collar) to help control our play environment and prevent altercations. You (the pet owner) give our staff and associates permission to use these proven methods on your dog at our discretion. Our dog boarders will be given one and a half hour breaks three times a day during meals, and will be secured in their kennels overnight when not supervised. Dogs who are not eating may be given additives if allergies are not indicated by the owner. If you have questions, concerns, or comments please advise our management for clarification.
