

Camp Wil-lo-linn PA Rules and Responsibilities

- Obey all camp rules;
 - Never go down to or allow campers down by the river.
 - Keep campers within camp boundaries unless your leader has checked your unit out to go to the playground or meadow.
 - Wear appropriate clothing: long pants, close-toed shoes and unaltered camp shirt and scarf.
 - No running except when playing games in the meadow or on field.
 - Use or possession of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, firearms, or weapons is forbidden and will cause dismissal from camp and be reported to your parents/guardians and Girl Scout Council. If necessary, incidents will also be reported to the police.

- Be respectful of everyone at camp:
 - Do not use profane language, as clarified at training.
 - Stick to age appropriate topics of discussion with girls (no dating, boyfriends)
 - Listen to adults and make courteous suggestions.
 - Be a role model, especially when dealing with individual differences.
 - Make sure all campers feel comfortable and included.
 - If you have a problem, talk to the PA Coordinator or Director as soon as possible.

- Be responsible:
 - Arrive on time, by 8:15, pitch in and stay until your job assignment is completed. “Bus” is a job assignment.
 - Stay with your unit unless your leader gives you permission to take a break.
 - Participate with girls in all activities. Do not focus on your own interests or conversations.
 - Stay with your unit during resources. Support all instructors.
 - Do not wander off by yourself or seek out other PAs when you’re on duty.
 - Offer to lead songs, games and hikes.
 - Limit your PA table visits to one in the morning and one in the afternoon, 15 minutes each.
 - Do your assigned tasks without being reminded.
 - Alternate days with your PA partner to attend noon PA meetings.
 - Read all emails from PA coordinator before and during camp.

- Teach Rainbow Award Skills:
 - Teach all required skills for your grade level.
 - Plan a calendar on the first day.
 - Help campers in your unit catch up if they have not been at camp before or have missed a year.
