Intercession is STILL Your Highest Calling

February 1st, 2021

Dear Lord, thank you for the grace of prayer and supplication and that we may always pray intentionally and from the heart. Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking, “This situation is very much a model of what is coming to America. Prepare yourselves children, prepare your hearts, your relatives and those who will listen. Now more than ever you must be steadfast in your resolve to live for God alone. Does Scripture not say in Matthew 26:39, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will.””

“The writing is indeed upon the wall. But know that I am with you my children to help you get your priorities straight. Press into prayer my dear ones, press in. This is not business as usual as many seem to believe. You can be on the front lines praying and changing the outcome of the enemy’s actions, but truly you must apply yourselves to pray mindfully that this is coming to your shores as well. Those who show mercy will reap mercy.

“The whole earth is about to be scourged, but your prayers, focused and mindful will make the difference. You are part of My army of intercessors, ask of me, the serious unction to pray and I shall obtain this grace for you.

“Many of you are at a loss as to what or how to pray. Do not let that stop you, come in obedience to prayer and the unction will be given. Some of you are praying continuously, how very pleased my Son is with you, continue to press in and grace upon grace will be given you. It is not well understood the favor a sincere intercessor has with God. This IS the highest calling my little ones. Do not think otherwise, do not be lured away to accomplish a great work, your greatest work is done on your knees. After that time, then comes your apostolate. It is rare that a child is brought up in the true fear of the Lord, by continuous prayer, but it is a beautiful accomplishment when they are. This quality prepares them for life more than any other discipline. But for those of you who were raised in front of a television, you have much to overcome with your restless minds.

“Steep yourself in Jesus, in His arms, His peace, His protection, and pray from within His heart. In this way your hearts will beat as one and you will lose that bitter edge that comes from your flesh wanting to indulge itself.”

“Lord, keep my eyes open and my heart engaged in prayer. I keep falling asleep.”

Mother Mary continued, “It is best that you fight against this and target the enemies that are working with your flesh to pull you down and all of my children.”

God bless you dear Heartdwellers and may the light of Christ shine from within you.

Jesus' Loving Embrace

February 2nd, 2021

Jesus, help us rise above our sorrow embracing Your loving kindness and comfort. Fill us with Your everlasting love. Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking, “You all have prayed for your Sister Magdalen and We have responded to your prayers, as prayer and crying out for mercy moves most effectively on Our hearts. All of Heaven and Purgatory is interceding on her behalf.

“What you are seeing in the spirit my daughter is currently happening. We have gathered around her bedside and My Son is moving gloriously by holding this precious one in His loving embrace. He has taken her to His heart and continues to lavish His beautiful, beloved Bride with cleansing, healing, mercy, love, graces, comfort, consolation and His peace. We have joined our prayers with yours and they are assisting in her refinement and preparation for Heaven.

“My children, for the moment, I need you all to set aside your human emotions and dispositions and please continue deep, intercessory prayer for your Sister and all that she is suffering for. There will be a time to mourn the departure of her earthly presence as written in Scripture.”

And when she said this, I immediately thought of Ecclesiastes Chapter 3 which reads in part,

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:

a time to be born and a time to die,

a time to plant and a time to uproot,

a time to tear down and a time to build,

a time to weep and a time to laugh,

a time to mourn and a time to dance,

a time to tear and a time to mend,

a time to be silent and a time to speak,

a time to love and a time to hate,

a time for war and a time for peace.”

Mother Mary continued, "The fruit that is being born now out of her sacrifice is great and bountiful.

Convictions of hearts, conversions, blessings, graces and virtues are coming forth and being imparted in abundance. Let not your hearts be troubled my dear ones and be at peace, she is in the hands of her faithful, merciful and loving Spouse."

I Am Your Hidden God

February 4th, 2021

Lord, we desire to know You more fully and deeply. Speak to us Jesus that we may know the desires of Your heart. Open our eyes to see Your wonderful truths that You have for each of us. Amen.

The Lord began, "I know your heart is broken over the loss of your Sister, this heaviness and sadness you are experiencing will pass and I will help lift these feelings if you all will come to Me in earnest, be still and seek My presence to comfort Me as I will console and strengthen all of you.

"When you intentionally seek My Face, you further reside in My Heart. You have no idea what love and joy I feel when My Bride adores Me and sits at My feet. This is your true life's work, not to be in the limelight or praised by others or recognized for your worldly accomplishments, but to choose silence, to embrace all that is not seen by earthly eyes, but by those of the Spirit. When you enter into My hiddenness, you start to resemble Me.

"I have allowed some of you to experience earthly success and when you thought it was as a result of your hard work and efforts, you strayed from Me. This cost you graces and favor upon your lives. You didn't hear clearly from Me or readily feel My presence."

This reminds me of the time, I had achieved my biggest sale ever and my manager was going to recognize me in front of the whole company the following day. I came home that evening and was all amped up, talking a mile a minute to my husband when he offered to make me a cup of tea. Little did I know that he put one of his Mother's 30 strength valium in my tea to calm me down. Well, I had never taken anything stronger than baby aspirin and when I finished the cup of tea I was down for the count, could hardly make it to the bed and was out like a light for the rest of the evening, the next day and the day after that. When I finally came to, I called my sales manager and he couldn't believe that I didn't make it to the office. I told him my husband slipped me a mickey in my tea and it knocked me out for two days straight, he thought it was hilarious. I was so upset with my husband for stealing my thunder at the office, when it occurred to me that the Lord was trying to get my attention in a big way and humble me. Boy, was this a wake-up call, I thought I had better get rid of my pride and vainglory asap or the Lord wouldn't be able to use me for His purposes.

Jesus continued, "Yes, Elisabeth, that was Me using your husband to bring you back to Me. You were getting too caught up in the rewards and accolades of your co-workers and not spending needed time with Me.

"When you love Me, it makes up for those who do not love Me." And when He said this, I thought of the Fatima Pardon Prayer given to the children by the Angel of Peace which is, "O my God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope, and do not love You. Amen."

The Lord continued, "I am calling My People to hide yourselves in My Heart and be forgotten by men. When adoring Me and spending time with Me, I want you all to come to this hidden life, because I am your hidden love."

My Mother's Role

February 7th, 2021

Lord Jesus, help us to understand and imitate Your Mother's example of love and faithfulness to God, and how powerful her intercession is for us as she brings our petitions before the throne of God. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, "Carry it like a champion. I know many of you are feeling very, very sick. This was an assignment on you. When a certain person saw a slip of paper with her information thrown into a fire, the intention was death by fire. At that time, you broke that curse, but our Lord is allowing just a little of it to land because He needs our prayers and sufferings. He is with you Clare, do not be afraid."

"I just threw up."

"He is still with you." She smiled.

"Thank you, Lord, for helping me get through this."

"Those who are more seriously ill, please pray for them, patience, strength and thanksgiving that you all have been counted worthy to participate in His sufferings. Great is your reward in Heaven."

"I know it is nothing like what others suffer Mother."

"Each gets a share of the burden according to their ability to carry it with grace."

"Sweet Jesus."

The Lord began, “Sweet Clare, thank you for carrying this burden without complaint. Truly you will not go unrewarded.”

“And you know Lord that is not my desire.”

“I know,” He continued, “And for this I rejoice. Few are the souls willing to carry the world on their hearts. Oh, how I wish you would teach more on this.”

“Lord how can we accomplish this?”

Jesus continued, “Being obedient to every moment of the day, depending on the burden. In this moment your suffering is drawing a very lost soul into My Heart to be cleansed and set free.”

“Oh Jesus, I pray for her and the other Satanists, that they will come to their senses and recognize what a swindler and cheat Satan is.”

“Oh, he is full of divisive and devious ways, nothing is beyond him. He waits for these messages so he can corrupt their meaning and cause the innocent to fall from grace. He attempts to take the holy and nourishing food from their hands and even their mouths. Don’t let him, check the thoughts being projected on you, against what I have written in Scripture.”

“He also attempts to plant lies that discourage others or conflict with scripture. Do not be fooled My Bride, his specious lies are the very doctrine of Hell. Judge these messages on their own merit according to Scripture. Do not allow him to twist the words to make them something different than what I have said and taught you in the Scriptures. Do not allow his devious ways to influence your thinking.”

“On that note, I have given you the Scriptures you needed to understand My Mother’s role, they have been deliberately ignored because teachers did not want to engage scandal and they themselves did not bother to go deeper to see, in truth, what they suggest. But pay no mind, those of you who embrace her intercession are blessed indeed. And the time is coming when these mysteries will no longer be shrouded in guilt.”

“Here the Lord is mentioning the series we did on Mary to prove that she does and can pray for us from Heaven through the instrumentality of her Spouse, the Holy Spirit.”

“Only in Heaven will you understand the very depths of her maternal role. Then all shall be shame faced who calumniated her, and did much damage. That is enough My dove, you need to recover.”

“On that note, two days later, the Lord opened up another verse of scripture that ratifies her role as an intercessor. “A sword will pierce your heart that the thoughts of many may be laid bare.” In simple terms, her agony during the Lord’s passion was used by God to intercede for those who were perishing.”

Families in the Community

February 8th, 2021

Lord, give us wisdom to make the best choices and the grace to trust in You even when we don’t see immediate answers. Give us hope to carry on in spite of the circumstances around us. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, “Don’t cry Clare, just step in and get the work done. Don’t waste time on self-pity, forgive and go on. I am with you I know you are struggling and I want to help you. Try to get your armor on first thing of the day. Pray the binding prayer at the first opportunity.

“Right now, you would not believe the suffering My Son is going through, is it too much to ask for, that your right hand is gone for a while? All over the world people are suffering so much more than you can imagine. Even though it has not hit this country full on yet, still there are great trials going on for the inhabitants of the earth. As always, your prayers are so very important. Do not allow yourselves to get bogged down in the overwhelmingness of all that must take place. Let Us help you.”

“Oh, thank you Mother please help us. Please help me. Please restore what was so difficult to begin.”

Mother Mary continued, “We must try always to be in the shoes of others. But this is why religious orders do not accept vocations with children, because it always happens that family draws them off from the purpose of the order. However, it is possible, if you are willing to bear the cross and delays involved when they feel pulled away by family. There is still much good that can be accomplished. But you must consider that there may be loss as well. We want this to be a community with families as well, yet this is to come at a later time. Your recent married couple are an example. Much good will come from this union. Much healing and establishing in righteousness. We are fully onboard with this, do not allow the devils to sow doubts. This IS Our will. Much will be learned from this.

“My dear ones please lift up the suffering in this hour, there are so many.”

“Mother how can this be done? I get so distracted by the needs of the moment.”

“It is a grace you must ask for,” Blessed Mother responded. “Ask, and keep asking, and ask again. Continuous prayer carries with it so many benefits. There will be many attempts to divide this community, but brotherly love will stop them all. This is why it is so important. Don’t lose sight of this Beloved.

“As you all are waiting for events to unfold continue to lift the world up day and night, ask for this grace my children. Then practice it.”

“What is the best thing to pray for Mother?”

“Mercy, mercy, mercy, the endless need of mercy. Pray for mercy in whichever way you know it is needed. And always pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet along with my Rosary. These two are the most robust for this hour you are living through. In this way you will always be in contact with Him.

“There are different ways to achieve this, it is the heart that counts.”

Distractions Have Stolen My Jesus

February 9th, 2021

Lord God, there is no distance in the spirit and we thank You for Your wall of protection around us to guard against distractions that try to steal our focus and pull us away from You. Amen.

The Lord began, “Listen to Me, I am here with you, but you will have to fight hard and struggle to get back with Me in the way you long to be. You are surrounded by distractions, surrounded. It will take a monumental effort on your part to affect this change. It can be done, but it will cost you.

“Do not grieve, because I have not rejected you, I am here with you Beloved, right here, totally engaged in our loving relationship, but you must understand you are frail and weak and easily distracted away from Me. You must have a distraction free environment. Do you understand?”

“Is that the only problem.”

Jesus continued, “Yes, that is the problem and it is a very substantial problem. In order to overcome it you will need great discipline and cooperation from everyone. This is the root cause. You love them and your animals, and you sacrifice your time with Me for them. This can be remedied. But you must set to work stridently and enforce the need to be alone. Then you and all My people will be able to touch Me.

“This is a combination of your weaknesses, Satan’s wiles, and the carelessness of those around you. You must set the example and maintain it. This very same issue plagues everyone. Don’t you know that the leader replicates their behavior in the followers? Everyone is suffering from this and it can be fixed. That is why there are not more visions and insights. They are not getting close enough to Me for long enough to break through the rhythm of a busy life.

“Fix this and the blessings will be innumerable. Allow it to go on and you will struggle every day without having truly touched the hem of My garment. And by the way, here I am, longing to hold you and talk with you and so many things are in the way. You have allowed this and you can fix this.

He smiled big, “I am here with you, but your prayer life has been watered down by excessive activity and distractions. The community must have much more respect for prayer time, each individual needs to enforce the sanctity of this time. What more can I say? Stop pretending that I am not right here beside you, because I am. I am deeply in love with you Clare, and all My Heartdwellers, and I need this as much as you do. I have suffered much because of these distractions.

“Is it in your mind to say, “But You are God? How could You?” I must have your consent and your diligence in roping off our time together. You have never lived with a family before; you don’t know how very distracting it can be. That’s why many become hermits, they want Me alone. And when they make that break from life as usual, they obtain it.

“Think about how you can change this dear ones, I long for all of you more than you long for Me. Truly I do. Please, please remedy this separation you all have allowed. I will help you, I am with you, and I am for you.”

Gideon's 300

Dear God, please give us a humble heart to yield to your instructions at all times. Help us to obey you and be flexible to Holy Spirit's guidance. Amen.

The dream began, I was in a house with about 11 other Brothers and Sisters and we were preparing for a battle against the enemy. We were putting on the full Armor of God, making ready our swords and praising God in advance for the victory. The Lord had given us a "heads-up" that witches, warlocks, satanic priests and evil practitioners were coming to take us out and try to destroy the spiritual prosperity and fruitfulness of the Lord's work through us.

I looked around the living room and recognized no one except one Brother from our refuge community. He came up to me and asked if I knew when evil would approach the house and I replied, "Soon, very soon, within the next 10 minutes." You could actually feel the wickedness start to descend upon us and it smelled like decaying flesh. Just then I heard Jesus say, "There are several covens coming." And doing quick math in my head, my heart started to sink, and that didn't include any accompanying demons and evil spirits. I thought, Oh Lord save us!

All of sudden, the evil forces were upon us and the battle began to rage. We were all supernaturally infused with power from Heaven and a fresh indwelling of the Holy Spirit, that my swords, bows and arrows seemed to be acting on their own. As soon as one sword was used, instantly another took its place. I discovered that you can take the Holy Spirit sword and use a bow to launch it right into the middle of the fighting. It did major damage to the enemy and upon hitting a target it either was disintegrated or became like brilliant light....it was very powerful! We were engaged in battle for what seemed like a long period of time, when all of a sudden, our attackers would start to swell up and implode from the inside out. It was disgusting and incredible all at the same time.

They all disappeared and we fell to our knees praising, thanking and worshiping God. A HUGE wave of relief came over all of us. Right then, I looked out the large living room window and saw what appeared to be another onslaught of the enemy coming towards us. The Lord said, "More covens are approaching." I broke out in a massive sweat and my heart started pounding. I cried, "Jesus help us!!" Their front line of evil attackers were almost to the house when I woke up from the dream and heard "Gideon's 300."

Now as a refresh, here is a summary of the story of Gideon's 300-man army from Judges Chapters 6, 7 and 8.

Israel once again had turned away from God and had fallen into idol worship. God appeared to Gideon and told him he was courageous to lead Israel in battle against the Midianites and for his sake He would save Israel because God found Gideon worthy.

Gideon was convinced that God wanted him to lead this group of men who had gathered around him. But God said that Gideon had too many men. God wanted Israel to know that it was not the might of 32,000 men that saved Israel, but God Himself. God asked Gideon to pare down his army by asking his men whoever is afraid to fight can go home. It must have been disheartening to see 22,000 men turn around and walk away. But Gideon was left with 10,000 brave men.

Even though these men were brave, they were not all wise. God asked Gideon to take them down to the river and watch them drink. The number of those who drank while keeping guard of their surroundings was 300 men. The other 9,700 bowed down to the water losing sight of potential enemy attacks. God said that the 300 would become Gideon's army to fight against the Midianites. There were at least 135,000 enemy troops against Gideon's 300 soldiers.

Gideon prepared his men. They were each equipped with a lamp and a horn. The lamp was covered in a pitcher so that their lights did not shine out yet. Gideon spread out the 300 men on the hillside into three companies. They crept down toward the camp with their eye on Gideon. He instructed them that when he blew his trumpet and broke the pitcher containing the lamp, the soldiers were to do the same. They also yelled out, "the Sword of the Lord, and of Gideon."

When they all broke their pitchers and blew their trumpets (creating a great noise) the men inside the enemy camp awoke with fear. Gideon's men yelled out, but did not attack. They stood their ground and did not engage the enemy. The enemy soldiers began fighting those around them instead of with Gideon and his men. Those who survived the self-inflicted battle fled to the outer regions of Israel—right into the home territory of the 30,000 soldiers who were sent home previously. These out of work soldiers then rose up and picked off the enemy army as they fled through their land.

Gideon and his 300 continued to pursue the enemy until they captured kings and princes of the enemy armies. Gideon's victory won the respect of the Hebrew nation. They wanted him to become their king and lead the country. Gideon refused saying that God would lead Israel. The fear of Gideon and his mighty army spread throughout the region. During his pursuit of the enemy armies, Gideon had trouble from some of the tribes of Israel that would not give food to Gideon's army so that they could continue to fight. Gideon came back and slew those uncooperative men. The fear of Gideon and his men was great enough that Israel lived in peace and worshiped God for the next 40 years until Gideon's death.

Gideon learned to trust God step by step. The truth is, whatever God wants from us, it probably will be even more impossible than we can imagine. Yet, when we obey Him and trust Him each step of the way, it will make sense what the Lord wants us to do. God is accomplishing His purposes on earth through all of us. It is a great thing to be obedient to the Lord and to be part of His amazing, divine plan.

Amber's Sacrifice

Lord, be near us in our time of weakness and pain, sustain us by Your grace, that our strength and courage may not fail; heal us according to Your will. Amen.

Mother Clare began, “Oh My God, thank you for these wonderful souls. Thank you, Mother, oh thank you so much.”

“They surround you like olive plants around your table,” Blessed Mother began, “Each with copious fruit hanging from the branches, truly this is the vision of their love and steadfastness that I want you to keep in your heart. Your hearts are knitted together as you all cry out for Amber and her healing. Truly death would be more merciful than living through what is coming.”

“But Mother it is so terrible, what she is suffering.”

“There are worse things Clare, trust me on this. Great graces are being dispensed from this holy soul. Yes, indeed she has become holy and is receiving all the help necessary that she needs in this moment, surrounded by her suffering family. This is a great work of mercy Clare, understand this is truly a great work of mercy, and she will be glorified for her cooperation.”

“Thank you, Mother, for this word of encouragement.”

Mother Mary continued, “All of you now are being called forward, called upon to support the salvation of souls, the alleviation of the suffering and witnesses to God’s faithfulness and glory. As Covid increases in the valley, your God given supernatural immunity will strengthen you, but you must apply your armor faithfully and pray for the sweetest love of Jesus to inundate your enemy’s souls.

“May they be met with waves of love from Heaven until they are confounded as to why they are there doing what they are doing. May the waves of love inebriate them and knock them off their feet until they are senselessly in love with Love Himself. Yes, your hordes of weapons must be love bombs. Fire on the demons, love on the practitioners, until they are deliriously confused as to why they are doing what they are doing. May it no longer make any sense to them at all, just as in the scene from St. Patrick when he tells the warrior, “Yes, my life for yours.” The druid was so confused he just walked away, there was no fight left. All the fight was gone from him.

“Those moments in films are touch stones to God’s grace, as an example to you as to how to handle the hatred of hell staring at you. Overcome them with your love.”

Save The Date & Join Us

February 12th, 2021

Hello brothers and sisters and Heartdwellers family. I am so excited to share this vision and our first Heartdwellers event with you. t

This vision was given to me more than three years ago in prayer. We had organized a pro-life event outside at a park. There were many attendees and activities going on. The main attraction was the Healing Room which was a prayer tent. I saw women entering the tent who have had abortions, lost their child or had a miscarriage. Then they were led by our prayer team into using their sanctified imagination to go enter into the memory of their pain and actually meet with Jesus and see their child. I saw many women breaking down crying and receiving so much freedom from the guilt and shame they carried. Then they were taken to the second part of the healing room where there was a prayer team ready consisting of 1 adult and one child in each row.

I saw all my siblings and my nieces and nephews there as well. When the women would come up to receive prayer the child would have their hands open to receive them first and say, "You are forgiven and hug them" and I saw many women breaking down in tears on this alone as they were hugged by the children and the adult who would pray over the women. It was such an amazing vision that I tucked away in my heart.

I decided recently to make a rhema card out of it and put it in deck of cards knowing that when I pulled the card out it would be the proper time for me to do this event. I pulled it the card at the end of December when I thought I was going to Ghana. I was so flabbergasted because I thought Lord I am leaving and how is this to happen. I assumed in the vision I had years ago I was in Texas because all my family and nieces and nephews where there as well

We discerned and the Lord made it clear that he wants us to do this event in Taos, I was even more blown away wondering how is this going to happen. However, when the Lord gives a vision and says to move forward with it, he brings all the pieces together and he has, I now have my family on board to be a part of this. Blessed Mother gave us the name of the event which is called "Life from Light" from James 1:17 Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

It is a free family-friendly and fun event to celebrate the gift of life that begins in the womb and we desire it to become an annual celebration. This event is an opportunity to bring mothers and parents together from all walks of life and lavish Gods' love on them. We want to touch mothers and fathers in Taos and the surrounding areas who carry the pain and guilt of aborting a child, losing a child or having a miscarriage experience God's freedom through the Healing Room.

We will provide free food and have a cotton candy and popcorn maker. Bounce house for the children. There will be powerful speakers who will share their stories. Activities consisting of music, poetry/spoken word performers, were looking into getting a children choir to perform, intercession, face painting, and a balloon release where we will write a name on the balloon in remembrance of a lost child or aborted baby to let them know they are not nameless or faceless as we release the balloons to heaven. This event will help bring the reality of how precious life is and how children truly are a gift from the Lord to give expecting mothers much hope for the future. We will also provide goodie bags for every attendee and free t-shirts

The Goal and objective of this event is to bring healing to women and men who carry guilt, shame, fear, and pain from the act of abortion. To bring awareness of the sanctity and value of life. For all women to see the honor and value in being a mother. To have all attendees encounter the tangible presence of God's love

Why are we sharing it with you Heartdwellers because we are inviting each of you out to join us for this event. Many have desired to visit the refuge or even meet Mother Clare and the family. There will not be trips to the mountain this time however we would love to have all of you save the date and make this a family trip to come out and join us in this event. Also, we need you! We are so in need of helping hands, volunteers to be a part of the prayer team with your children and we know this family is gifted with talents Do you do poetry or even have your own story to share and you can relate to these mothers than become one of the speakers of the event. Do you have some products or resources that would be really valuable for those who attend, then become a vendor and we can provide you a free vendor table for this event?

We are going to try to working out a deal with one of the local hotels so all Heartdwellers guest can stay in the same place. So, once we have the details, we will let you know and we will be posting another message once the event gets closer. If you think you just can make, but would like to help with the event you can donate!

We have to put 300 goodie bags together for the event and provide bags of loves for expecting Mothers. You can donate gently used children clothes, and new infant items. We also have surprise raffle at the event where we want to provide paintings done by Heartdwellers to give to the attendees, the theme of the painting should bring them joy about being a parent or bring healing to their hearts so be creative all Heartdwellers artist if it's not too much to ask we will take sketch, painting, on canvas or just paper it doesn't have to be framed or you can send in your artwork digitally by email and we will print it out, just make sure the pixels are high resolution.

And of course, you can always donate to help us cover the cost. Just send in your donation and memo "Life from Light event". You have been so generous to give to all the new projects and even communities that are being fundraised for. We so appreciate it! So, save the date and join us. We need your help and would love to meet you and your families face to face.

If you're interested in getting involved in anyway and attending the event please email:

Heartdwellersghana@gmail.com or lightofthewoodstaosnet.com so we can have head count and began communicating with you. If you can donate items Please mail it to P.O. Box 1113 Taos NM 87571 and if you are sending a picture of your artwork online just email to us.

God bless you family and I can't wait to see you!

Magdalen's Journey

February 14th, 2021

Lord, please help us rise above our sorrow and renew our spirits with Your loving kindness and comfort. Fill our souls with Your everlasting love. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Blessed Mother this is beyond horrible. Lord, please I need to get in touch with You. Please don't allow me to be lost in a mist of confusion somewhere."

Blessed Mother began speaking, "Clare, you are living in the last days of the scriptures which most have been thinking there would be more time. You've been told how much time, I know it doesn't make it any simpler, any easier, it is just that you are seeing scripture fulfilled in your hearing ears.

"You have been given the graces you need to navigate through this most difficult and threatening time. Your president will not delay much longer, truly things have come to a head...a point of no return. This is the sad news, do not be confused by time lines."

"Mother, it doesn't feel imminent."

"You are not on the front lines. Try to rally your brain into a strong perspective, the signs are truly all around you."

"I guess I feel like something better than what they have planned is going to save us at the last hour. War is so senseless. What is wrong with me, I can't think straight or put two and two together."

“These things are happening right before your very eyes, and you are well informed. Prayer and praise. The enemy does not want affirmation and truth going forth. He would rather leave you in the dark, guessing about what and when things are going to happen. But as you can see the situation has become critical. The souls around you and including you who have fallen into this malaise, it is a wicked attempt of the enemy to cause brain fog and cut you off from the Lord. As you worship this will be broken. Beloved Clare, do not focus on the vessel, yourself, or anyone else, you know you have a legitimate office to fulfill. Even though interpreting things might seem to elude you, you have pulled some pieces together.”

“How much longer Mother??? It seems like forever.”

“And yet when it comes it will be too quick. Your posture now? Prayer, soon enough you will get disclosed information. Keep your hearts and minds riveted on cleaving to your spouse and providing the words to go forth.

“The living will envy the dead. Do not mourn for those who are saved and will be taken. This is the greatest act of mercy your tender loving God can give you. Do not fear what was left unfinished on earth, you will have eternity to share the good works begun here.”

“Mother, please, break through this gloom.”

“What I would like you to see is how wonderful it is when the soul completes their journey and walks into eternity. How blessed is the one who dies in His Grace? Do you see children? There is nothing upon this earth worth waiting for, worth staying back for, unless it is to serve and give more. Many of you are very tired and are just waiting for the day of your translation. I cannot find fault with that; I too was eagerly anticipating that day. But do not give into sadness that it is not your turn, rather stir your hearts and look for new and encouraging ways to help those around you.

“Collect wedding presents for your groom dear ones, collect these gifts and how magnificent will that day be. Don’t desire to leave this earth one moment sooner than you are called, because there is still much fruit for you to bring forth. Then He will surprise you with joy beyond all knowing at that moment when He says to you, “Come up hither.””

“Rejoice at the passing of the faithful and pray that you too may soon be invited to come up hither where there is an end to all pain, all ugliness, all suffering. Arise my beautiful one and come, for you have passed from mortality, sin and darkness, into the abode of the blessed, where every tear is washed away, every wrinkle in your soul is gently steam cleaned out, and you emerge the glorious bride you were born to be.”

Father God Speaks, You MUST Control Your Thoughts!

Dear God, we pray for the grace of self-control. Help us to use our heavenly wisdom to make the right decisions and choices every day. Amen.

I woke up this morning in my heavenly home, and was filled with such a sense of indescribable joy and love for everyone and everything. I raced downstairs, throwing open the French doors and ran out into the garden, I stopped dead in my tracks and started laughing at the scene in front of me. Father God was on a chaise lounge with a sun tanning reflector board under His chin. He turned to me and said, “What, I can’t enjoy My own creation?!” And this sent me howling, I laughed so hard. I was wondering why He wasn’t on the island, which is where I usually see Him when He broke into my thoughts and said, “Come sit next to Me child.” I immediately pulled up a white chair alongside God and sat very still, fearing a severe chastisement was forthcoming.

He began, “It is good and healthy that you reverently fear Me, I have been speaking to you but you are not trusting that it is really Me and that I would deign to speak to you. Do you realize how much I love you and want to spend time with you and all My children?”

Busted..... I typically envision Father God on the island in the middle of the lake in my heavenly home because I believe Him to be too all powerful, too all-knowing and too magnificent to want to be with me and talk as a Father and daughter would. I readily try to hear from our Lord Jesus and Blessed Mother, but my spiritual antenna for hearing Papa God's voice was on mute. He totally called me out on this point as I shrunk down lower into my chair feeling like a two-year-old.

Father God continued, "Before you came to the refuge, My Son gave you a very special grace by allowing you to see some of the fruits of your labor when you were vacillating about whether or not to come to the mountain and follow Our plan. Your thoughts, child, almost derailed your divine destiny. I can't tell you how many times My children have done this over the centuries by interrupting Our holy arrangements which are good and prosperous for Our people, instead they follow the suggestions and lies of the enemy and go down the road of desolation and despair, not bearing any good fruit.

"In order for the community and all Our people to continue to grow in holiness and be better prepared for what is coming, you MUST (and His voice boomed when He said this), you MUST control your thoughts, practice self-control daily, seek Our wisdom and not give into self-will. Self-will blocks graces and the ability for Holy Spirit to fill you and work through you.

"My children, if you let your desires lead your decisions, you will readily give into sin at every turn and spin out of control. Self-control is a discipline that We grow in you and when you cooperate with Us and choose to die to your flesh, you will live in Us. If you make sincere efforts to control your thoughts, you will receive from Us what you need to stand firm, resist the devils and extinguish in you all that is unholy. We are standing with you to help you. Call on Us and We will answer you in the most extraordinary ways, beyond your comprehension, we will come to your aid and strengthen you in Our righteousness." And that was the end of Father's message.

Scripture tell us in 2 Peter Chapter 1, verse 5 and 6, "For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with goodness, goodness with knowledge, knowledge with self-control, self-control with endurance, endurance with godliness."

Knowledge must come before self-control and self-control will lend itself to endurance allowing us to finish the race and finish well. This goes along with what Mother Elisha saw, one Sunday, written on our armor in big, bold letters was the word "Endurance" etched right across our breastplate of righteousness.

As a confirmation after Father God spoke, I pulled the following Rhema: “Hope in God and expect everything that is good from Him. Don’t dwell on what the enemy presents to you...stop thinking of it and turn to God. Bend your knee before Him and with the greatest humility say this short prayer, “Have mercy on me a poor weakling.”

Let us thank Almighty God for holding back the increasing darkness and for the wisdom and self-control to live for Him alone in these final days. Amen!

The Global Blackout Prayer

February 16th, 2021

Dear Heartdweller Family, the idea of The Global Blackout Prayer arises from Mother Abigail’s personal need to feel connected with our loving Heartdweller family during the global blackout. Here is The Global Blackout Prayer and introduction written in her words.

I have the experience of receiving lots of consolation and encouragement from praying the new binding prayer sent to me by a dear sister in our prayer team, when I pray it, I can feel there are others praying this same prayer for me and my family, while I am also praying for them. This sense of 'togetherness' in the spiritual realm through praying the same prayer for each other crafted in the heart of Still Small Voice Ministry is very powerful for me. That's why the idea of The Global Blackout Prayer came up.

This is a Prayer, written in hard copy, intended to be prayed during the Global Blackout by all the Heartdwellers and in your prayer groups. The purpose of this prayer is that we may feel more connected with each other spiritually during this time, that we will still share a mutual support, encouragement, and spiritual covering with each other. I also hope that those who pray it may find courage, strength, consolation and a firm purpose during the coming difficult times when one may feel overwhelmed by the drastic changes and disoriented. Personally, I recommend our priests to offer this prayer before the Body and Blood of Christ so that we can together lift up ourselves, our families, our brothers and sisters in the Sacred Heart Refuge, all Heartdwellers, and the world with one same prayer, joined as one fragrant sacrifice to the Lord.

There are four parts in this prayer, with four different titles, addressing different groups of people we are praying for. You don't have to say the titles when praying.

Personal Prayer:

Oh, my Most Loving Jesus, thank you so much for being with me during the darkest time since creation. Thank you for giving me life today, so that I can believe You, adore You, hope and love You, on behalf of those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You. Thank you for giving me food to eat, water to drink, clothes to wear and a place to lay my head. Thank you for Your protection for me and my family from evil forces in this world and from deadly diseases in the air.

Lord Jesus, even in the darkest hour, I still believe that You have wonderful plans for me and for my family. Plans to prosper us not to harm us, plans to give us hope and future. Oh Lord, help me to treasure Your promises deep in my heart and cling to You with all my strength. Please guide my mind and my heart so that I can do your Holy Will. Cleanse me from all sin, iniquity and unrighteousness. Fill me with your Holy Spirit, baptize me with fresh fire, so that I may serve You and not my own selfish desires. Oh Lord, please give me the faith of Abraham and Mary, the courage of King David and the joy of Enoch, so that I may sing Your praises all day long with all my heart and be Your beacon of Hope and Light for the whole world.

Prayers for The Sacred Heart Refuge:

Dear Lord, we present all brothers and sisters, Mothers and Fathers in Sacred Heart Refuge in front of Your Holy Presence. We are deeply thankful for all of their sacrificial work for us. We pray that You will cover all of them under Your Precious Blood and strengthen them with Your abundant graces. We pray that You will deliver them from all evil, give them strength to do Your Will every minute in their lives.

Please help them to love each other sacrificially, heroically, with Your wisdom and discernment. We pray that there will be blinding lights arising from the Sacred Heart Refuge, shining into this dark world and graces will flow from this holy place into the world like mighty rivers.

Prayers for Heartdwellers:

Lord, we also want to present all Heartdwellers and their families in front of Your Holy Presence. First, we want to give thanks to You for all the members in the Prayer Team. We thank you deeply for their sacrificial service for us through prayers, words and counseling all these years. Please remember their hard work, out of pure love for You and Your people and give them and their families abundant graces and strong protection in their time of need.

And Lord, we give You thanks for this great, loving, global family of Heartdwellers. Please grant abundant strength and graces to all Heartdwellers and our families. Cover all of us and our loved ones under Your Most Precious Blood and strengthen us with Your Holy Body and Blood daily. Help us to stand firm under trials. Help us to know that we are not alone, but all the citizens of Heaven are cheering us on.

Lord, please connect all Heartdwellers more tightly spiritually, help us to pray for each other, for our families, relatives and for the whole world with all our hearts. Truly, together, we ARE a formidable, spiritual force. The kingdom of darkness will tremble at the sound of our prayers, arising to the highest heavens as one fragrant sacrifice. There's no limit, no distance in the spiritual world. We are one in Christ. Together with our heavenly Bridegroom, we declare victory over all the fears, sufferings, even death itself. We firmly believe that one day, we will reunite in heaven with great joy, with our heavenly Bridegroom Jesus, all the Saints and Angels and with each other.

Prayers for the World:

Oh, Lord, we pray for mercy, love and conversion for the whole world. May you visit the lukewarm Christians during this time and help them to re-establish their faith in You once again and return to their first love. May You give them grace to turn back to You with all their hearts and transform them into Your fearless warriors and ambassadors of love.

May You visit the lost souls in their dreams to bring them hope and consolation and truth about who you are. May You use us Heartdwellers according to Your Holy Will, to travel in the spirit to minister to your lost and broken ones, even to give them last rites. May You open the hearts of the lost souls to receive Your truth and light. We pray that there will be a harvest of souls during this global blackout so that more can be saved before it's too late.

We also pray for Satanists and those who align themselves with evil. Please help them to recognize the truth of their dark master during this time and the falsehood and total fruitless of their beliefs. Lord, may You help them to have true contrition of their sins and give them the grace to turn back to You and put their hope in Your unconditional and merciful Love.

Thank You Lord for listening to our prayers. Jesus, we trust in You x3. Amen!

Battle Plan for Conversions

February 18th, 2022

Lord Jesus, most merciful Savior, we pray that all the sheep who have strayed from Your fold may be converted to You and will glorify You for all eternity. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "What is on your heart Mother?"

"I want to see you get well, but this sickness is an abundant offering, for so many situations that are to come. You cannot be there on the front lines, but you can quietly and submissively offer these sufferings, which I know are truly hard for you."

“Blessed Mother, you can make us stronger.”

“Indeed, and I do sweet child. Show much gratitude for the washing away of your sins. Be ever so grateful that this has so readily been extended to you. Tuck this in your heart, guard it from defilement and do the right thing from moment to moment. In short Clare, hold onto this grace and keep yourself scrupulously clean. Your prayers too will increase in effectiveness. Thank you for being willing to shoulder this burden, I know it is not easy.”

“Oh Mother, it’s the least I can do. It is such a small sacrifice.”

“It is, but when you handle those well, greater things are asked of you. What is coming will bring the people of Europe to their knees, it will lead to the Ezekiel 38 war. What dramatic times you are living in, you have no idea. Some have been very blessed and lived and died only during peace time. For others, it will be a horrendous shock if they have never been in the military. Many will return to prayer and ask God for His protection. However, the wicked will only become more wicked.

“You must hold up your nation with prayer. Many things the enemy wants to do here will not be accomplished, but it will take all of your prayers. You are the fortification for this area, it is your prayers that will bring protection, as well as conversions. His heart is still set on liberating the victims of Penasco and the surrounding areas.

“You need to rest and not be so anxious to get messages out. You have helpers you know. The enemy wants to take you out, but this will not happen. Rest, my daughter and all my children who are weary, and be still before My Son. Cherish this time with your spouse beloved ones.”

As we were praying the Rosary, Brother John was leading the decade and had just said the words “call to conversion”. Right then, Mother Elisabeth saw Jesus standing at a table pouring over what looked like blueprints of a plan, and a pure, white lamb was laying down on the other side of the table. She asked Jesus, “What are you looking at Lord?” And He replied, “A battle plan.....a battle plan for conversions.”

Dear Family, let us continue to pray for a tidal wave of repentance for sinners, the conversion of the unsaved and the conversion of our enemies as we are end time ministers in our Lord's army.

Architects of Evil and War

February 18th, 2021

Lord God, we live in such evil days that we pray against all enemy activities that are being done in secret, all dark plans of war and to harm the innocent. Protect us Lord and keep us safe as we trust in You for all things. Amen.

Jesus began, "Beloved, it is far more complicated that you could ever conceive of. Convoluted mixed blood lines and genetic refinements, even using those things that are unclean to increase their power and relationship with the demonic kingdom."

"Oh, Jesus how terrible."

"Do you trust Me?"

"Yes, Lord, even in the immensity of their nefarious scheming."

Jesus continued, "Clare, every place they have been, I was there first. Every move they made to promote centuries of evil moving forward have no ability to overcome Me. All of these things I have known in advance" and have the perfect plan for their demise, nothing, and I do mean nothing is a surprise to Me. Nothing can overcome Me; nothing has slipped by Me or My Father.

"I want you to make that clear that just as they have built pockets of power and evil, so have I already made provision for their failure and complete demise. The architects of evil from ages past have nothing over Us. They will be brought to complete justice in their time. Your prayers for their complete eradication are powerful and very relevant in this hour.

"So, Yes, pray against this evil, nefarious movement that is being taken apart piece by piece. Have great faith in your president that he has been acting for the good of this nation and not with the dark ones. Many lies and misinformation has been spread about the man and his family. Never did I say that he was perfect, but he came the closest to having the attributes to bring it to pass. Keep praying for righteousness to triumph. Do not stop praying as many of their own free will have to be willing to come forward, even risking their lives to confess the truth, because many have died bearing witness to the truth. Pray for them and your president, your prayers dear ones are so needed in this hour."

Blessed Mother began, "Thank you for being here Clare and for caring. I will help you. You are on the precipice of war and things are very tense around the world. War is never pretty, so many sins are committed. What is most important to Us are the souls as yet unsaved. It is true that many will be more responsive when death is knocking at the door. Europe has become a cesspool of unbelief and pagan practices. This is part of the reason this is happening. They have turned away from God to live strictly for the flesh.

"How painful this is for my Son to behold. How He has pleaded, knocked at their doors, reasoned with them, extended His tender love to them, but to very little avail, for their hearts are frozen over and ice cold. Yet We never give up, so don't stop praying even though you know how secular it has become. There are still some people in tiny pockets that hold to their faith and traditions. They are the ones that are holding back what is inevitable, with their prayers and offerings."

Jesus began speaking, "This war is not My will, but what do you do when you give a nation all that it needs to be healthy and prosperous and they still ignore you, continue on in sin without a flicker of their conscience, and fail to give thanks, or even consider that God has done this for them. This is a last resort to reach those who may still have a heart somewhat alive, and get them to turn back to Me. Pray for them Clare, My heart aches for what these nations, once upon a time so devout and close to Me, but now so callous, indifferent and dismissive, what they have become.

“Believe Me I will be listening with eager anticipation for those who cry out to Me. Regardless of their sinful past, they are My children and I love them. I see what influence Satan has managed to distort their faith with, I understand their weaknesses and errors, and long to bring them home into My house. I look only for a flicker from their hearts. A flicker of remorse, a flicker of repentance, a flicker of one who is thoroughly lost and seeking salvation. I rush to embrace such as these, and to reassure them of My love. When they realize how very much, they are loved, the fight to resist just melts away.

“This is what you must pray for, that they recognize the spark of life I am setting within their hearts. These I will take to Myself and bring the truth steeped in My loving care for them. Pray they will cry out for Me. What is going on in the European continent will eventually spill over onto America. War is so demoralizing to the people, and everyone on the whole planet will be deeply affected by their loss.

“What are My instructions for you in this hour? Count your blessings, be ever so grateful, and pray for those whose lives are being ripped away from them, so violently and senselessly. Pray much for these for it is so demoralizing to see everything you have worked so hard to acquire, to live a peaceful lifestyle, the fruit of a life of labor, and see it go up in flames, and then be taken to a prison camp where your destiny is so uncertain.”

Oh, dear God, have Mercy on us and on the whole world!

Make Every Breath a Prayer

February 18th, 2021

Lord Jesus, only You can prepare us for what is coming. It is Your wish that we pray for the unsaved who may die in this war. We on our own cannot do this, but with your help, please, help us to be a living unbroken prayer for the lost. Amen.

Well, Heart Dwellers, I have been a little out of pocket with a flu bug for about three weeks, but I am back! And today during the Rosary it was brought home to us that there are thousands of souls that are unsaved, and that there is a war looming in Europe. Europe and Taiwan even in this country. There is even talk of a civil war in this country, and the Lord's concerns is for souls who do not know Him. So, when I came to Our Lady today during the Rosary and asked what was on her heart, that was the first thing. I will share it with you now.

Our Lady began, "This is indeed a perilous time for the Earth and her inhabitants."

Before we had begun the Rosary, we were getting a little update on the intel from Europe and Russia, and it seems that repeatedly, they failed to reach an agreement, NATO and Russia failed to reach an agreement, and Putin is dead serious about using nuclear weapons to resolve the issue. Dear God, that is the last thing we want! Even as the expression goes, M-A-D, MAD, Mutually Assured Destruction. Terrible! It is a terrible thing, but there are some on the dark side that want to see this happen to Earth, they want to get rid of everyone. It is insanity, it is total insanity. So, to carry on with Our Lady's message, she began,

"This is indeed a perilous time for the Earth and her inhabitants. Nothing like this has ever taken place on the Earth, nor shall it in the future. Offer everything Clare, every little pain and inconvenience, offer it for those who will die. How we long to draw all men together in Christ, but this has proven to be impossible, therefore the plan of all ages will be put into effect." And you can read about that plan in Matthew 24.

"This is the most torturous time for my Son, as He watches one after another fall into perdition, knowing their ultimate fate." But the Lord recognizes who is falling asleep and not in the Lord and what their fate is, and it just rips His Heart apart. She continued, "There is no comfort strong enough to take away the pain from my Son, but it must be this way. Long and hard has Jesus labored for the lost, but the pressure of peers, the world along with the threats of death have caused many to back away. For those who did not back away, they are martyrs in Heaven.

"But now we have come to the last moments of life for many on Earth, and to draw them in at the last moment is a mighty task. Truly it is a mighty task, and some are so hardened in their false beliefs there is not even a crack in the veneer for hope to enter in. None the less, there will be some who receive Him, and even in this, time is extended to the soul to recognize their Messiah.” And when she said that what I know she meant had to do with the supernatural extension of time to give that soul a chance to receive the Lord. So, in other words, instead of one second, it could be one minute, instead of ten seconds, it could be ten minutes, but the Lord longs to extend mercy to those who have no idea who He is.

She continued, “Do not be discouraged by the masses that will perish, it is written that this must happen. Yet do not stop praying for those who are undecided, where there is life there is the possibility of conversion. Oh, how tremendously He loves them! If only they knew, if only they knew....

“This is your mission in these end times, to reach those who have never known His love. You can do this through the means you have been given. Every second counts, every word counts, every song, every kindness, counts. Oh yes there is still time to reach them. Will you Clare? Will you go out of your way to reach them? I know you are carrying a heavy cross, but what you do not realize is that it is impacting those who have been dead in their sins or captive to lying religions that Satan is behind. The people of Islam, those who have been born into Muslim families, and have been taught all about Islam, they have seen how violent this faith is and it shakes them to the core, because they also anticipate God’s mercy. There is a place in their hearts for mercy and they keep looking for it, but they see violence and hatred, but it is not mercy they see but the slaughtering and raping of women and children. Where is the mercy in that?

“You see, buried deep beneath the layers of hard-core cultural norms, lies a conscience that anticipates and looks for mercy. When it does not materialize two choices are left to them: Believe that these heinous acts of brutality are God’s mercy to rid the planet of evil or be left with a dent in their conscience that simply will not go away. These are the ones we have hope for. And yes, you can pray for those who have a serious reserve in their innermost conscience that something is not right, this is not what mercy looks like.

“In the end beloved, you will see and understand the justice of God. You will no longer have these questions and qualms about those who die without Christ. It will all become clear to you, but do not stop praying, for many shall be converted by your one simple cry for mercy.

“The Lord knows well how the conscience has been misled and misinformed and He has many tools at His disposal to change their hearts. When He hears your sincere prayers for these poor souls, He is inspired also to act to bring them home to Himself.

“So, as you can see, your prayers matter, there is hope, much room for leniency has been created for the brainwashed, Oh Clare, He is so faithful, but He needs your prayers, your acts of kindness and your loving example to turn those who are deeply embedded in error. Yes beloved, this is a prayer community, and I am calling you all to unceasing prayer. For some this seems impossible but for those who can accept it, all they need do is to ask and it will be given them, but please, not to be wasted.

“You have come to the time where every breath you take needs to be accompanied by a prayer or a sigh for the unsaved.”

This is a Season of Warfare

February 21st, 2021

Lord, we lift up our Shield of Faith against all the fiery darts of the enemy and take our Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God and use Your Word against the powers of darkness. Jesus, we trust in You. Amen.

“Lord, I need to hear from You. Please, please help me. Covens? I know you did not put us here to be kicked out.”

“You are so right,” Jesus began. “I did not put you here just to have you leave again or give up. I planted you here for the cries that reach My ears every day. They are cries of despair from innocent children drafted into covens against their will. They have no defense. They are helpless and targeted without understanding what is behind it.

“Beloved Clare, YOU are going NOWHERE, until I decide to take you. You have been hit with endless scenarios of how ‘they’ are going to take you out. Of how they are going to break the community up and leave you alone, of how your precious ones are going to die. Understand this, I am a God of My word and My word for you is life abundant, not the gloomy scenarios they feed into your head.

“Yes, there will be challenges, many. But nothing you, the community and all the angels and saints around you cannot overcome if you are obedient. I will guide and lead you to be obedient. Clare do not fear, do not fear man, evil angels and spirits, do not fear anything. It is not becoming to My Bride. There is no force that can come against you that I cannot totally defeat. No force at all. Though they think they have the upper hand, I laugh them to scorn.

“Be there for your community and explain to them that every means available, every lie and deception they can conjure, they will play your minds with. This is why the armor, several times a day is going to be necessary. You are coming into a season of warfare that is fierce, underhanded and full of fury. They are angry that you are indeed taking territory. Not territory that can be seen by you, but invisible territory in the hearts of souls living in this area. NO WEAPON FORMED AGAINST YOU WILL PROSPER. They will all fail.

“But you My children, My Brides, must be totally obedient and submissive to brotherly love and the survival of this community. This time of testing will come to an end and you will all be better off for it. But you must lay down your selfish agendas and excuses as to why you cannot be present for prayer and Friday night prayer, which I am calling you to attend and put your heart into it.

“Understand, it is going to take all of you working together to defeat these forces. Put aside pet projects for this season of warfare. None of the things you envision doing are going to last through what is coming to earth. This is not peace time, this is not prosperous time, this is a time for destruction and your hearts must be trained to defend yourself and others, as well as doing what you can to comfort and minister.

“Your solidarity is what will bring you through. Your faithfulness to warfare prayers, will bring you through. This is a time of arming for battle, not day dreaming about the future. The future is upon you and it is not a pretty sight. I have called you here to this mountain because it is safe and you will learn what you need to know to survive these times.

“Now is not the time to go here and go there, now is the time to consolidate, unite, become skilled in warfare, in loving one another, in the tactics of the enemy to separate and divide you. Together you are strong and Satan will do everything in his puny power to draw you away where the wolves can circle you.

"I have prepared this place for such a time as this, I have hand-picked those who are called here, I am equipping you to stand, be united and overcome the wiles of the devils. They have your number; they know what could cause you to abandon the nest I brought you forth from and they will tempt you over and over again with lies to cause this community to disintegrate. It is in your hands to respond as warriors defending your homeland. I have given you a clear word, hold to this and We will be victorious. Be faithful to pray for your enemies.

"My Mother and her prayer warriors are with you all."

Temptations from the World

February 21st, 2021

Lord, let our hearts obey Your Word which provides a way of escape from temptation. Give us the wisdom to walk away when we are tempted and the clarity to see the way out that You will provide. Amen.

"Blessed Mother thank you for your faithfulness...I want to be just like you."

"And you shall," She began, "Don't you believe that?"

"If I think about it in my own terms, I don't see that happening, but if I lay it in your hands or your Son's hands, I know He can do anything with a willing heart even if it is weak and wavering at some times."

“Wavering is a given, even as circumstances change continually. But Clare, it is your faithfulness to seek Him even when you feel ashamed, still you get back up and go to Him. This shows your faith in His mercy.

“Now this is the topic I want to discuss. Many of you look so far down upon yourselves that you almost incapacitate yourselves. I want you to have the attitude, “I can do this. With Jesus all things are possible, no matter how many times I have failed in the past, with His help I can conquer every circumstance.” This is the kind of faith you need in Him, not yourself. You know your weaknesses and flaws fairly well, but you focus too much on that and not enough on His sufficiency which is always available to you.

“He never gives you a task to do without making the means to do it available. It is up to you to just resolve yourself to do it. Many balk at new endeavors because they are looking at themselves, not Jesus. This attitude of heart is self-defeating. All of you in this community are capable of far greater things, but it is not in doing greater things that determines your value. Rather it is in obedience to the little things, with a good heart, that causes you to shine in His light before men.

“Man tends to gravitate towards accomplishing things that will bring them praise and security. They have not yet conquered their self-will and they are seeking vain things that very often will only lead them astray from the path of holiness. What I want from you my children, is a meek and humble spirit, just as happy to sweep the floor as to sing before a crowd.

“I am telling you these things because some of your thinking is askew. You still have the world and accomplishment in the world, in your hearts. I had only the duties of the present moment on my mind, and sought nothing more than to be obedient and faithful. And therein lies the solid virtue that qualified me to be the Mother of the Savior. Of course, I would never say I was worthy, never, ever. But the Lord saw the simplicity and faithfulness of my heart and that was what He was looking for. Not pedigrees from the halls of learning, not great physical beauty that would qualify me to be a candidate for a royal office. Nothing the world desires did I qualify for. It was my purity and simplicity of motive, my faithfulness and littleness that made me a candidate.

“Many of you have gifts that would win you worldly praise, but you have chosen the better part, you have chosen to serve your God in whatever capacity He calls you to. My children do not look back at the world and flirt with vanity, hold to the good course you have set your feet upon. Trust that littleness and nothingness to the world is indeed a high honor and not easy to come by. You have chosen to serve your God, better to sweep the holy floors of the palace than to seek fame and fortune in the world.”

“Mother, I don’t think anyone here is thinking about that, is this truly you?”

“You would be surprised at the scheming of the devils to try and pull a soul away from this holy vocation. The world still lurks in your hearts, none of you are above being tempted away back into the world. You would be surprised if I pulled back the curtain of certain hearts and you could see what they struggle with.

“But this message is also for the channel. There are those who have considered giving their lives to the Lord, but they still have stars in their eyes, wanting to accomplish that which is applauded by the world. Now is not the time to be thinking about this when the world is on the very precipice of destruction. Yet youth and dreams never die and many have toyed with the idea of giving themselves to Jesus, yet the world and their peers, reel them back into a worldly perspective.”

Music & Memories Originally Locked in Your DNA

February 22nd, 2021

Dear Lord, help us to be open to discovering the new mysteries of our physical makeup, that has been hidden from us, and the history behind it. Protect our discernment and give us wisdom to separate what is true from what is false. Amen.

Mother Clare began, “Dear family, lately the Lord has been reminding me of a message He gave me months ago, about our DNA and what will be discovered there. Our DNA is like a giant library of movies from the centuries of our ancestor’s lives. If you spliced them all together, I believe you could see a complete movie from Adam and Eve in the garden until this present day. There are actual imprints of events stored in the chain of your DNA.”

Jesus took over the conversation, “This is partially why people believe in reincarnation. The truth is the memories are there but you did not directly live through them, rather, you see them from the eyes of your ancestors, who were present to them. These are real movies of their experiences imprinted in the DNA chains, that can be revisited and replayed.

“They are things your forefathers experienced that formed impressions on your DNA that you will carry with you all your life, unless it is altered, deliberately or accidentally. I can alter your DNA and insert Mine in places to help you overcome persistent obstacles in your lives. Much of what you will experience at the River of Life will be a cleansing and releasing them so they may no longer hinder you.

“You are struggling with one such obstacle and I will assist you as you obediently take baby steps to move past your former limitations. Beloved you have done it before, you can do it again. I am equipping you with all you need to conquer these failures in your life. I do save the best wine for last; you know. You have no idea what I have planned for you if you are obedient, consistently, not obedient today and lax tomorrow. That will get you nowhere, or rather should I say, it will get you down into a pity pit. You must be consistent, even when you don’t feel like it. You have it in you to press in and keep going, no matter what.

“If you think I am exaggerating look back on your early days in San Francisco.”

“I am asking for that grace Lord, and the grace to open my heart up when I sing, and let what is truly good inside, come out. I am so inhibited.”

“Yes, that is one of your problems, but you see, speaking before a group is cultivating a certain presence that helps you out grow those limitations. You were a very quiet introverted child. Part of that was indeed your nature, but other parts were your fears. We are overcoming it all.

“How about it? Will you trust Me and begin to open up...they love you; it is safe. And even if it weren’t, still you would do it for Me, as you have in the past. I have so much confidence in you Beloved, I know for a fact you can do this. So, let nothing hinder or delay this work any longer. Take My hand and we shall walk through these threatening walls as if they were nothing more than a vapor.”

“Lord, I am going to do this. Jesus, have mercy, let me see You smile again, that makes it all so worth it.”

“Beloved, you will have so much more than My smile, this will have lasting effects on you and your future generations.”

Resolve To Be Kind, Not Right

February 22nd, 2021

Lord, please help us to see what is behind conflicts, and not assign motives of hostility to others. I know the enemy has many situations set up just to break the bonds of brotherly love. Help us to recognize these traps and not play into them. Amen.

Mother Clare began, “A certain situation came about many days ago where I felt sharp replies in a conversation that I didn’t think was antagonistic. However, the other person did and I was startled by the harshness of their answers. To anyone in the world it wouldn’t be bothersome, but in a family or community setting it was inappropriate and felt like a personal attack. I wrestled with it, pushing out judgment and seeking the Lord’s perspective.

“Our Lady came to my rescue to help me understand that it was not rejection or an attack, but a way of operating in the world that was no longer necessary in this environment. So, I prayed and let it go.”

Then the Blessed Mother began to speak, “My Children, why have you allowed enmity to enter in? Do you not know that you are weakening your very selves? When you have hostility to those who care deeply for you, you are cutting off your nose to spite your face.”

“I long for you to be gentle and forgiving with one another and not take offense so easily. Satan would have you imagine that the person sitting next to you or across from you is your adversary and they must be conquered and put in their place.”

“This is not what I see. I see demons dropping ugly thoughts into your minds so you will respond defensively, lash out, freeze up or run. How very sad it is to see friends respond to demonic prodding’s against one another. How I grieve for you all. Have you forgotten that you love one another, you need one another, you are all in the Lord’s army and the enemy wants to disband it so he can have free reign over souls, taking them to Hell?”

“Do you not know the tenderness in your hearts you hold for one another? Tenderness forged at such a great price, the very blood of my Son. He has brought you together for His purposes and He desperately needs you to show charity to one another, to yield to one another, not to blow up or grow cold, but acknowledge your imperfections and ask for forgiveness. You only hurt yourselves on a deeper level when you entertain attitudes against one another. Many times, it is a simple matter of miscommunication which you do not have to interpret as hostility, that could easily be untangled without hard feelings by just embracing the other person’s viewpoint.”

“This is what I want you to do in the future, inquire of the other person who has caused you consternation, “What are you thinking here, I don’t understand why you seem upset?” This would be very pleasing to me and very pleasing to Heaven. But listening to the ugly and divisive suggestions of the enemy is no way for you to behave. Love one another, as He has loved you, as I have loved you. And always think the very best about each other, until proven conclusively that they had ill intent towards you. This is the safest way to proceed.”

“Little children, love one another, take the time to understand one another. Be quick to apologize, not quick to judge. Forgive one another, because your sins are pouring out behind you like sand. Avoid self-righteousness with all your hearts, it is a relationship crusher. You have many battles ahead of you and it could be so very easy to get you on a downward spiral before you do what you have come here to accomplish.”

“Please be on guard and watch yourselves carefully, relationships especially with parents can bleed over and be projected on others, always, do a reality check when you start to form judgments and do not assign motives to one another. I will help you to love, to understand, to be yielding, these are golden qualities of a disciple of Christ.”

“Thank you, Mother, please help me to have the right heart and mind, being more gentle and understanding. I know it is not important to be right, but to be kind. Help me not to be defensive, but to understand others and be supportive of their needs.”

“This prayer I will answer,” Blessed Mother continued, “Be mindful to recognize what voice is influencing your perceptions of others. Many, many times, it is the enemy. If you are careful, you will avoid injury to others. Ask for the grace not to assign motives. This prayer I will also answer. Go now to love and serve one another and your God.” Amen!

The Days of Plenty Will Soon Be No More

February 23rd, 2021

Lord, I sense that in some ways You may be displeased as to how we are living and our true motives behind our actions. Please help and guide us daily in our intentions to do Your will and what is pleasing in Your sight.

Jesus began, “Most of what you all do is highly pleasing to Me. Since you brought it up Elisabeth (and immediately I wanted to reel it back in), there are a few areas which could be improved. For years now, I have increased you with much and you have faithfully given to others who have need. Very soon dear ones you will be entering into leaner times and I want you to be able to give even more to others, starting now, and less to yourselves.

All it will take is a sudden knock out of power for an extended duration of time and your circumstances will dramatically change and be affected. The food storage and animals are only a small portion of My instructions, the preparation of your inner self is far greater than these and will be what ultimately carries you through difficult times ahead, along with My graces and provision.

“During My earthly ministry, our family was deprived of much and gave good example of living for others and not ourselves. We did not give into our flesh by practicing self-control and denial of worldly delights. I ask that all My beautiful Brides learn to live on less and give more to the poor. These intentional actions, not only purifies your hearts, but gives Us great joy when you provide comfort to others and help ease their burdens.

“What exactly do You want us to do Lord?”

“In everything you do, think about others,” Jesus continued, “When you prepare your grocery lists or ask someone to do a chore for you, be cognizant about your Brother or Sister who is doing the actual work. Ask yourselves, “How can I simplify or make this task lighter for my Brother to fulfill?” Is the work, food or cleanup something you can do yourself to lessen someone else’s load? Is the food you are consuming enough to sustain you physically and could you have a little less and give more to others who have no food or don’t know where their next meal is coming from?”

When He said this, I thought about wood to heat our hermitage which I usually ask Brothers Leo or Stephen to get for us and was feeling guilty about it when maybe I could cut and gather the wood myself. Jesus broke into my thoughts and said, “Everyone has their assigned work to do, what you should consider is your timing in asking for something. If your brothers are busy supplying others with wood, then wait to ask at a more convenient time.”

I also was thinking about getting some new moisture resistant winter boots as everyone seemed to have a newer pair and mine keep coming apart even after I have glued them three times with gorilla glue. I would come home each day and my socks and feet would be soaked through from hiking through the snow. For the past two years, I have been wearing Mother Elisha’s shoes which are faux suede and also get wet. Well, I decided to go online and purchase a pair of inexpensive snow boots when the Lord said, “No.” I thought, come on Lord this is a necessity! Then I went to town last week with Brother John and saw Wal-Mart and thought I will just quickly run into the store and buy a cost effective pair of boots and again, Jesus said very clearly, “No, make do with what you have and I will give the boots you would have purchased to someone else who has greater need of them.” Right then I was so convicted and aware of my selfishness (I felt like a toad) and immediately started thanking the Lord for His provision for others.

Jesus continued, “My precious ones, this is not a chastisement or to make you feel guilty, it is an awareness and a higher level of conscious for you all to be concerned about those around you or who you come across. We have blessed you all to be a blessing to others.” And that was the end of His message.

As a confirmation to His words, the Gospel reading during mass was The Beatitudes. And raising His eyes toward His disciples He said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in Heaven.”

Where I Hurt, God Hurts

February 25th, 2022

Lord, when our hearts are overwhelmed, enfold us in Your peace and lead us to You, our rock and strength. Amen.

“Help me mother, please help me.”

“Stand still and see the salvation of Your God, dear Clare. Nothing about this is easy, and yet you want to bring forth as much fruit as you can before you are taken, this is why it is so very hard, you are going uphill with this very heavy cross. Please do not grow despondent, but carry it with the strength of who Jesus is in you, not who you are in and of itself.

“Copious graces flow Beloved, copious graces are flowing. Find your solace in that please. Do not expect to get better and be up and running around. Rather go deeper in prayer, more quiet, more stillness, more Scripture, it is filling you with valuable graces to minister from. Things truly now are on their last legs; therefore, times are bound into the tribulation to become more and more difficult. Cleaving to Him is your only salvation. I will help you, give you strength and wisdom, nothing about this is easy, but there is great refinement going on here. Be a good example dear one, be a good example.”

“Lord, I don’t want to be far removed from You and where You are at and in intercession. I feel too absorbed with myself, but everything inside of me is so messed up over the condition of the world.”

“Can’t you feel Me Clare, your whole heart is enveloping Mine and we are doing this together. Everything you feel. The whole world is holding its breath. Just be with Me, don’t look for assurances, just know that where your God hurts, you hurt together, and how comforting it is to Me that this is your will to cling to Me in My sufferings. Cleave to Me, we are doing this together. I know just how much each one can take.”

“Lord, please give me a sign that I am truly with you.”

“Look at Me,” He answered.

His face was all worn, bleeding from the ‘Comfort Me’ image. “Expiation is extremely important at this time,” He continued.

“Lord, I love you, help me love You more.”

Jesus smiled at me. “You spending this time just wanting to be in My presence means all the world to Me. I know your mind is not engaged, but your heart is and that’s all that counts. Oh how I wish I could hold You and rock You in my arms.”

“Oh Jesus, just squeeze all the love in the world out on Me to give to You.”

“Stay in this place of peace and comfort, you have a busy week ahead of you.”

“Oh Lord this world is so transitory, so fading, so empty.”

“True, but it is your presence in this world that makes it bearable for others who are not ready yet, your messages bring light to the darkness all around you. That is why you are so hated.”

“Lord, I have done nothing dramatic and ecstatic, truly I am a nobody walking through nowhere.”

“But what do I do with little pencils?” He replied.

“Ah yes, You are the master painter.”

“You have made major inroads with souls. This is so important because many of them have searched long and hard to make sense out of religion. They needed someone to stand up and say, “This is the way, walk ye in it.”

Prepare For Food Shortages

February 25th, 2021

Lord Jesus, I pray that all Heart Dwellers will take this message to heart and do what is necessary to prepare for what is coming. Amen

My precious family, we have heard about wars and rumors of wars and conflicts around the world keep getting more intense. The Lord has asked us to prepare for the famine that is coming on our country, but there are many who have not hearkened to this message. Again today, Our Lady entreated me to put another message up on this subject. Here is what she had to say:

“I am addressing the Heart Dwellers around the world. My Children, you have been given many, many warnings to put up food and necessities. Not all of you have hearkened to this request and as a result you are not prepared for the famine that is about to overtake the world. This is a planned famine, and it will be used against the people that this evil government deems unworthy to live. It is part of the dark hats evil schemes of genocide to rid the world of you.

“I have asked you to put up food so that you will not be incarcerated in a feeding center, so that you may remain free. Please hearken to my voice, the Lord wants you prepared. Food and water. And if you have a bug out place to go to, make sure it is properly prepared.” And yes, she did use the word bug out - because that is what we call it. Forgive me for interrupting but I just wanted to add that a tube of pain-relieving triple antibiotic ointment could save your life it is very, very important to stop a small infection from taking over your body and this will do it.

Our Lady continued. “The greatest preparation you can do is to be right with my Son. Confess all your sin and ask for a fully repentant heart, this is a prayer He loves to answer. What will happen with you and your family is extremely tied into the prayer life and intimacy you have with the Lord. All of you should gather together and pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Rosary at three pm every day, and as things become more difficult, pray more and more. The survival and salvation of your family is of the utmost priority, as well as the salvation of those around the world that are not prepared to die.

“In difficult moments, do not despair, for Jesus is with you and He will lead and guide you as you pray. Children, calm your minds and allow Him to speak to you, wait on Him. Worship is a good place to begin, then rest in Him and allow Him to impart what you need to know and make decisions on. Use your Bible Promise book as well to help you navigate. If you do not have a Bible Promise book, get a daily, a daily reader, with Scriptures and use that. And when you go forward in your Bible Promises, first cover it with the Blood of Jesus, make the sign of the cross, asking the Holy Spirit to reveal to you what you need to know and reverently open it. This is the tried-and-true way of getting a word from the Lord that dates back pre-Apostles.

“You will find at times, that when He speaks to you, some of the readings will not make sense or seem to veer off the topic you wanted wisdom on. This is always done to get your attention about things that might be more important for you to address in this moment, or issues that interconnect with what you were seeking wisdom about. Pay attention to that, go slowly with your discernment until you have a deep peace about your answer. Jesus has given Mother Clare many teachings on discernment, it would be good to gather them together and print them while they are available online.”

They are on our web site and use the search engine page to find what you need.

She continued, “I wish I had better news for you, but truly we are approaching a most difficult time in history, and there are no guarantees about tomorrow, so my Son is requesting that you provide for your families, three to six months’ worth or more, of food, water and medicines. It would be good if you had enough to share. I am watching over you to protect you, but please cleave to the Lord with all your hearts and obey Him.”

Amen.

Jesus Suffers Tortuously

February 26th, 2022

May the Lord help us to keep our hearts stayed on Him. Amen.

“Mother, I want to be here for you, could you please help me? The understanding of all these things which are happening in the world is so very painful.”

The Blessed Mother began, “Clare, do not allow yourselves to focus too much in what is coming. The hard parts at least. Rather draw closer and closer to the Lord in worship and intercession. You must fill up on worship and then cry out for those in such distress. What you saw here, sickness and dying, is happening all over the world in little huts, in apartments, even out on the streets and in the jungles. Yes, so many are dying and that is why the Lord prepared you to pray for those who are still very lost.

“After sincere, heartfelt worship, lift up the nations with sincere and heartfelt prayers, pray for those who are not prepared. Rivers of lava spill out all over the earth from those going down into the abyss forever. How tortuously my Son suffers from these losses. That is why we need more prayers.

“And Clare, those who show great mercy will receive great mercy. I know you view your state with great trepidation, this is a good sign, all you need to do is to love much and the rest will be taken care of. My children, you have no real accurate view of where you stand before God. Saved, you are, but there are diseases like pride, self-will, indifference and laziness that still cling to you. You haven’t much time to get it straight my Beloved ones.

“Conviction is pouring out all over the earth in these hours to assist all of you. And as you assist others, grace will compensate you for every effort and you shall become stronger in your offerings, and cleaner in your hearts. Detachment from selfish ambition will make room for every garland of grace bestowed upon you as you go to meet your King and eternal spouse.

“Do not fail to enlist the saints and angels who are watching you in these last moments of earth’s wretched history. Your saints are with you, those in purgatory will pray for you, just be sure to use every good impulse, every opportunity, to do good to others and even deprive yourselves to enrich them. This is not the end quite yet, so there are still good works to be performed and souls to be touched. Be sensitive my very little ones, to the impulses of grace to go out of yourself to help others. Do not be like the pharisees who did things to be seen. Rather be like the poor widow who gave all she had and only God knew her estate and what her sacrifice cost her.

“Diligently seek for answers to those things you do not understand and listen for the voice of Holy Spirit to direct you. We will not leave you helpless and wondering. Especially if you obey and spend the first two hours in worship and soaking prayer. You wash away the cob webs of deceit, self-interest and fear during this time, coming out totally united to my Son, who can then rearrange your thinking and actions. THIS IS NOT OPTIONAL. NONE OF YOU ARE EXEMPT. This has been given to you, not from a lowly vessel, but from God. These are your marching orders. There is no more time for foolishness on the internet. You lose grace when you waste unnecessary time in entertainments and truly what you get from man sucks the life out of your impartations from God.

“Therefore, respond to these directives as from the Lord, because truly they are. You have no concept of what you may soon be facing, but I do, and Jesus does, and I tell you the truth little ones, you are not prepared. Circumcise your hearts and your schedules with only what is necessary to the Lord...intercession for the millions perishing in Hell. When your turn comes, you will be protected, even as Magdalen was because of her faithfulness in prayer. But do not think that you can continue to engage in the vices of the past and not have to be cleansed by fire.

“Live as if these were your last days, and do not continue to act foolishly, but give everything up to God and His Holy Will. I will tap you on the shoulder when you begin to go the wrong way. Happy for you if you obey immediately and completely.”

Our Mother of Mercy pray for us!

We Are Walking This Out Together

February 26th, 2022

Renew our strength Lord, and let our hearts find comfort in You because You are the giver of patience and endurance. Without You, Jesus, we will not stand. Amen.

“My Children,” Blessed Mother began, “It should be no surprise to you that you are suffering various sicknesses and issues. The whole earth is in a great state of turmoil, and even to hold the land together is requiring many sufferings. There are physical things going on with the world that are taking a heavy toll on all inhabitants. I need you to find courage and strength to continue in the Eucharist and in your dwelling prayer. You may return to Heaven anytime. The Lord is extending this grace to you because of the darkness of the hour. I recommend you get serious about going there.

“Without His grace this world would not continue to hold together. The darkness has penetrated into every place on the earth. You are suffering through very difficult times that require much resolve in showing the Lord you live for Him alone, and that the good feelings that come with life are on hold for now. So much is being used to keep terrible things from happening because the threat of war and the death of millions is still very real.”

Jesus began, “I am asking of you My people, endurance. I do not say that lightly, I am requesting this virtue from you because it is greatly needed. Do not abstain from receiving Me every day. You all need this strength that only My Body and Blood can give you. You cannot go far without touching the hem of My garment. I am telling you, that is of great importance that you receive all the sacraments your mind and body are needing. Do not leave out confession, there is a certain cleansing and equipping you receive from that sacrament.

“Some of you are not paying sufficient attention when putting on your armor, and do remember to take your shield from Me and embrace Me fully, so that I can make of you an imposing tower that is totally protected.”

“Lord, our bodies are so worn out.”

“Some of you are still recovering from this terrible disease, you must be more patient with yourself and accept with tranquility that I am allowing this state as an offering. In this situation all you can do is pray, and for this time that is exactly as it should be. My Brides, I am proud of the way you are persevering and I forgive you for complaining. I love you dearly and I hate to see you suffering, but you are praying for the salvation of souls who are not prepared to die. DO NOT FORGET THAT.

“I am very pleased with the resolutions of your hearts and minds to continue on. You are in a serious war with evil and they are bound and determined to pick you off one by one. But you know this, it is good to remember it, things will not always be this difficult. You are going through a long, dark tunnel of warfare that is requiring more resolve than you usually have. You are doing this the right way by praying against the spiritual powers that are hell bent on discouraging you. The sun will shine again in your hearts. Do not give in to sadness.

“Understand My Beloved ones, I too walked this tunnel with My disciples. I too struggled and fought to persevere. You are truly being formed into My Image and soon enough you will see the glory that is being distributed on your behalf and the affects it is having in this war. So, please persevere as you have been, rely more on the Eucharist, and know that Earth is struggling to survive all the physical changes it is going through and we are all in this together.

“I am proud of you, I bless you precious ones, and encourage you to continue in your resolute state of commitment. The whole world is blessed by your prayers and offerings as well. Truly we are doing this together. Let these thoughts be a consolation to you. I love you so very deeply, I cherish each effort you make to feed My lambs and sheep around the world, and if you could see the good you are doing, you would be ecstatically happy.”

Chronicles of the Bride - Brother Mike's Heavenly Home

February 28th, 2021

It had been a long day and I was thoroughly spent, so I asked the Lord if I could please go back to Heaven and see more of Brother Mike's home.

After a few minutes, I was walking down Heartdwellers Lane in Heaven, it was a beautiful day and the bright light from God's Glory made everything sparkle and shine, especially the streets of gold and the somewhat translucent mansions. I heard a voice say, "Go left and when you see a rise in the land, stop at the first building you come across." I was intrigued to say the least. So, I headed in that direction and when I came to the building on the rise, I saw Brother Mike. I was so happy to see him! He said, "Hey Sis, good to see you, come on in," and he greeted me with a big bear hug.

We were standing in a humongous, state of the art, high-tech garage with the most incredible high-performance sports cars I have ever seen. Mike's garage had hydraulic lifts in it and he could move, up and down or side to side, one or several cars at the same time. He sat down at what looked like the helm of the Starship Enterprise and reminded me of Mr. Sulu on Star Trek the way he was pressing and moving around all the colorful buttons, knobs and hand grips. He certainly knew what he was doing. I asked Mike, "Which car he like driving the best?" He said, "It's really hard to choose because sometimes I just think about racing a certain car and boom, it shows up in my garage."

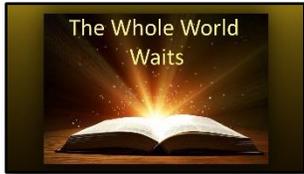

Just then I spied a stunning pearlescent, white Lotus Esprit and reading my thoughts, Mike said, "That's one of my favorites too." I looked around and said, "What's up with the antique Bentley in the corner." It was black with red velvet interior and had beveled, etched glass between the front and back seats with a small glass vase to hold a red rose back in the day. Mike grinned at me and said, "Oh, that old thing, that's my Dad's!" And we both started cracking up, it was so funny the way he said it!

Then Mike said, “Beth, I’ve got a pretty big race track, want to take a car out for a spin?” It sounded fun, the track was so vast and went over rolling hills, over lakes, under waterfalls, through the desert and even into space. I jumped into a royal blue sports car and Mike’s was crimson red, we hit the peddle and off we went flying over the track. At one point, our cars went into clear, glass tubes underwater and we drove past large sting rays, sharks, whales, dolphins, you name it, it was there. I felt such euphoria and exhilaration, I didn’t want it to end. Then we finally came to a stop, got out and Mike said, “I want to show you something.”

We walked to his house, more like a mansion, and upon entering I saw a gorgeous home. It was modern but with warm touches, and very tastefully furnished, organized and also, like the garage, had all the latest and greatest bells and whistles. His great room had a living wall in it with incredible plants and water features, it was beyond amazing to see. I looked down at the floor and we were walking on top of glass, underneath the glass was a salt water aquarium with sea creatures I had never seen before. Brother Mike was calling them by name and one large crab he called Sykes, because it was missing one of its pinchers. We started laughing because in the movie, ‘The Fugitive’ starring Harrison Ford, there was a character with only one arm and his name was Sykes.

We went down a spacious hallway, more like a corridor, and Mike opened a door and inside was his game room. My eyes could hardly take in what I was seeing.....there was full court basketball, a few lanes of bowling, billiards, air hockey, foosball, pinball machines, arcade games and on and on. Mike said while pushing a button on the wall, “Thirsty?” Without responding to his question, out popped the best looking strawberry, watermelon lemonade I had ever seen. I started to take a drink, enjoying immensely the delicious flavor and just then came out of the heavenly experience.... bummer, I want to go back!

Heartdwellers, I hope you all are enjoying these trips to Heaven, they are so uplifting and encouraging, and give us all great hope in an eternal paradise with our Lord God.

Dear Lord, please help us to clearly know that You are with us, replacing our distress with Your peace. You are our strength when we are weak, thank you for lifting us up so we can carry on. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, “I am here. The whole world waits for the appointed time. So much needless killing, so much devastation, truly it is beyond comprehension that such things must take place. The horror of war it is so senseless.”

“I am here Mother thanks to your army of intercessors.”

“I have never stopped watching over you and all my children, never, not even for one minute. Indeed, I am with you my very, very little ones. You see it is in your acknowledgment of your littleness that I can use you.

“Mother Elisha’s message is very, very timely. You see, Satanists are taught to be stronger than those who can hurt them operating from hatred and revenge. The coven is their protection. But all men fade like grass in the morning dew, then they dry up and wither. Satan tires of them and turns them over to death so he may devour their souls in Hell.

“Who would you rather have protecting you? The God that made the universe or one of His fallen creations? This is a time of visitation for you who have chosen Satan to be your defense. His time is short, his arm is about to shrivel, where will your protection come from then?

“Very simply, the God who made you still loves you and is standing by ready to sweep you out of the jaws of Satan, defend you and raise you up to His Heart, ready to forgive all the torture, all the brutality, all the victims brutally murdered, all the curses that brought about death, divorce and tragic loss, all of this He will forgive you of, if only you will repent, cry out to God and turn from your former life of sin. He did this for John

Ramirez, do you think you have butchered more than he? I can tell you he has not, but received full and total pardon. God will do it for you as well.

“My daughter, I have heard the musings of your heart, this community is praying for you, they have heard your cry, “He will never forgive me.” That is the voice of lying demons who are beginning to see a spark of repentance in your soul. Yes, they can smell it. To them it is the odor of corruption, but to God it is the fragrance of a lily poking its head up from the ground.

“The answer to this deep desire of your heart is that His Hand is reaching down into the muck you’ve been buried in since the violation of your tender body and soul, tugging at your heart strings to come home to Him. In this place you will receive healing and forgiveness, and a restoration of your soul you never believed possible. Yes, He loves you, Yes, He cherishes you, and He waits.

“You have nothing to fear from Satan, or any of his covens, they have no power over those who truly belong to God. And by the way, His plans for you will make your heart cry out for joy.”

Chronicles of the Bride – Trip to My Heavenly Home

2.16.22

The Lord recently told Mother Elisha that when we all gather together on Sunday, we were to take a trip to Heartdwellers Lane in Heaven. We had been doing heavy duty spiritual warfare all week and this experience was to encourage us and give us hope of what we can all look forward to in our heavenly homes.

The Lord began speaking, “You do not need to wait Elisabeth to gather with others, you can go to Heaven now.” And whoosh, I was instantly transported to my heavenly home.

Usually, when in Heaven, I visit my white, Victorian cottage by the sea with it's wrap around porch, french doors and beautiful, botanical gardens indoors and out. Today, I was transported to my country castle on a shimmering, pristine lake. So clear is the sparkling water you could see all the way down to the bottom and all the amazing colors of the fish and other lake inhabitants.

I was standing outside looking at the front of the castle, my eyes were drawn to one of the turrets which had a large arrow slit in it and there was my beautiful child Joshua, who is already in Heaven, waving enthusiastically at me with a big smile on his face. He has blonde hair with a touch of red, big, bright golden green eyes and he looks just like me when I was young. He is about four years old.

Joshua yelled out, "Moommm, can I ride Marie?!" Marie is my Mother Betty's horse in Heaven, she is beautiful.....red with a black mane and tail and white markings around her face and on her legs. "Of course you can sweetheart," I shouted back. My heart leapt for joy to see my son so happy in Heaven. He ran down the stairs, out into the inner courtyard of the castle and into my open arms. I picked Joshua up and hugged him soooooo tightly, lavishing kisses all over his face. He wiped his little cherubic face with his fist saying, "Awhhh Mom, I love you too."

Joshua looked into my eyes and said, "The Lord is here waiting for us at the entrance to the garden maze." Now, my heavenly castle reminds me of Leeds Castle in England. It's on a lovely lake and there is an incredible outdoor garden maze with high, ivy woven walls, where you can easily get lost in within moments of entering the maze. My son raced ahead of me, mach II with his hair on fire running towards the maze, he ran inside and disappeared. I was wondering why he didn't stay at the entrance where Jesus was suppose to be when after several minutes, I saw him in the crow's nest high above the maze. The crow's nest is for people who get lost in the maze and need to be directed to the exit. There is only one way in and one way out of this garden. You have to go to the center of the maze and out through an underground grotto to exit.

Joshua called out, exclaiming loudly and with all the conviction he could muster, "Mommy, you need to follow the Lamb, follow the Lamb he repeated." Just then Jesus appeared on my right as I was standing at the entrance of the maze. He said, "Come Beloved, I will show you the way in which you should go." I nodded in agreement and at the same time, we entered into the garden maze together.

Then the scene changed and I'm in a sky scraper, penthouse condominium, high above the clouds, over looking the ocean and Jesus is next to me along with Blessed Mother and we are discussing finishing touches on a mansion for one of my brothers who was a Heart Dweller. This brother died a martyr for his faith and Jesus was telling us about some of the secret desires of his heart and we were busy trying to manifest this in his eternal home. His residence needed to be extra special because he died a martyr. I immediately walked over to large double doors, upon opening them, I saw the largest showroom of features and décor you could imagine for a home, for the interior and the exterior...it was beyond nothing I had ever seen. You could select different types of waterfalls, private islands, boats, docks, patios, greenhouses, landscapes, terrain and every type of home was available. You could pick an igloo and put it in the middle of a rain forest or take a palacious palace and surround it with miles and miles of desert sand. There were no limits as to what could be created, it was so far beyond our limited earthly imaginations. I got the sense that this was my work in Heaven.....what an awesome job!!

Heart Dweller's lane in Heaven is not a lane at all, it's a very, very large city, more like a county, actually more like a heavenly realm all by itself. I'm sure it has it's own postal code. As I was finishing my brother's home, I spied a full size, clay Samurai Warrior and this reminds me of Mother Elisha because when she puts on her full Armor of God, she looks like a Samurai Warrior. In one of Mother Elisha's home, off to the side of her house, there is a flagstone path that leads to a stunning Japanese garden with the most beautiful and colorful birds ever, a waterfall that sparkles and Koi pond with large lily pads that you can actually walk on.....literally, you can walk on water at Mother's home! Only Mother Elisha, and of course God himself, know which lily pads you can step on, without falling into the water, to get to her lovely, hidden retreat made of bamboo and a very simple thatched roof.

I found this out the hard way when I came up with the, not so brilliant idea, of trying to sneak up on Mother when she was at her retreat, I ended up soaking wet from head to toe after falling into the water several times trying to figure out the correct path. It is truly the perfect, private getaway to be alone with her Spouse. Only Mother Elisha would have thought of a way to booby trap others from disrupting her time with her Beloved Jesus! And that was the end of my heavenly visit.

You all can have these same experiences by simply closing your eyes and imaging yourself in Heaven. It's amazing what you will see and Jesus is the best tour guide ever!

God bless you dear family and I will see you all on Heartdwellers Lane!
