Troparion (Resurrection) - Tone 5

Let us, the faithful, praise and worship the Word,
 co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit,
 born for our salvation from the Virgin;
 for He willed to be lifted up on the Cross in the flesh,
 to endure death, and to raise the dead//
 by His glorious Resurrection.

Tone 5 Kontakion (Resurrection)

You descended into hell, O my Savior, shattering its gates as Almighty,
 resurrecting the dead as Creator,
 and destroying the sting of death.
 You have delivered Adam from the curse, O Lover of man, // and we cry to You: "O Lord, save us!"

Tone 5 Prokeimenon – (Resurrection)

You, O Lord, shall protect us / and preserve us from this generation forever. (Ps. 11:7)

V. Save me, O Lord, for there is no longer any that is godly! (Ps. 11:1a)

The Reading is from the Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Galatians

Brethren, See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Alleluia and Verses Tone

V. I will sing of Your mercies, O Lord, forever; with my mouth I will proclaim Your truth from generation to generation. (Ps. 88:1-2)

V. For You have said: Mercy will be established forever; Your truth will be prepared in the heavens. (Ps. 88:3)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The reading is from the Gospel according to St. Luke

Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes, nor did he live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!" For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?"

And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the abyss.

Now a herd of many swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them. Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was healed. Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

Now the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! (Ps. 148:1)
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Prayer for the Officers of the Parish

O LORD, God of our Fathers : You built the Church upon the foundation of the Apostles, and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone. Grant that these Your servants may work in union with Your holy will, and purpose, and in living unity with Your beloved Son, our Saviour ; that by the power of Your Holy Spirit, they may be inspired to love You, and desire to extend Your Kingdom among men. Bless, and guide their good works in Your holy Church. Prosper their undertakings. Grant them perseverance in their labours, and wisdom to discern Your perfect will in all things. Grant them so to be joined together in unity of mind, and spirit with Your Church, that they may be made a holy temple acceptable to You, the Father Who are from everlasting, together with Your only-begotten Son, and Your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, always, now, and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Rite of Induction of Officers Elected to the Parish Board will take place
Sunday Nov. 13 after the Liturgy

A Prayer for the Veterans

O God of love and mercy, we ask for blessings on all those who have served their country in the Armed Forces of the United States of America. We ask for blessing for the Veterans, we ask for healing for those who have been wounded, in body and soul, during conflicts around the globe. Bring peace and comfort to them, bless them with good health and strength.

Have mercy on all those especially who came back from war, bring peace to their hearts and peace to the regions they fought in. Bless all the soldiers who served. May their service be rewarded and the calling to serve continue in their lives in many positive positions. Give us all today , o Lord, a vision to see a world full of peace and love. For You are a Merciful and Loving God in Holy Trinity and to You we give glory – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Q&A: WHAT IS EXORCISM?

Exorcism is the rite of prayer which expels demons from a person or physical object. The most common use of exorcism in the Church is at the reception of a catechumen, which is most often included at the beginning of the baptismal rite, and during the Great Blessing of Water which is done on the baptismal waters and at Theophany. An exorcism may also be performed if it is believed that a person is suffering from demonic influence.

Exorcism is the practice of expelling evil spirits by means of prayer or set formulas adopted by the Christian Church from pre-Christian practices. Christ Himself and his Apostles practiced exorcism for the people possessed. (See Matthew 10:1 and foll; Luke 11:14 and foll; Acts 16:18, 19:13 and foll.). Exorcism has been practiced on persons possessed by an evil spirit all through the development of the Christian Church beginning with New Testament times. The most well-known exorcisms are those applied to Catechumens about to be baptized. Since infant Baptism was introduced in the Church, the statements denouncing Satan and accepting Christ are given by the Godfather/mother in the place of the candidate to be baptized. The Orthodox exorcisms before Baptism are four in number. Following them, and after the candidate or sponsor gives the affirmations in Christ, he is required to recite the Nicene Creed as the final seal of a successful candidacy.

It should be noted here at this point that the Orthodox exorcisms are in essence prayers for averting the influence of evil spirits rather than for expelling the devil, especially in ceremonies such as sanctifying the waters (Hagiasmos), blessing the ceremonial oil, or blessing sacred vessels. It should also be noted that the importance of exorcism in Orthodox ecclesiastical life is not as great as it is in both the Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches. In recent years certain semi-pagan exorcistic rituals have been practiced by a number of people uncertain as to their religious belonging, including clergymen of the Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches. Assuming the role of an exorcist is a serious offense against the Church's conception of evil and of the sacramental means by which it should be warded off. Needless to say, evil in man, whether personified or not, naturally requires the help of the Church for its expulsion but, above all, requires the spiritual strength of the individual concerned.

Prayer for protection from evil

O Lord Our God, the King of the ages, almighty and all powerful, who create and alter all things by your will alone; who changed into dew the flames of the furnace in Babylon that had been heated seven times more than usual, and preserved in safety your three holy youths; the physican and healer of our souls; the security of those who hope in you; we pray you and beseech you: Remove, drive away and banish every diabolical activity, every satanic attack and every plot, evil curiosity and injury, and the evil eye of mischievous and wicked men from your servant (Name); and whether it was brought about by beauty, or bravery, or happiness, or jealousy and envy, or evil eye, do you yourself, O Lord who love mankind, stretch out your mighty hand and your powerful and lofty arm, look down on this your creature and watch over him(her), and send him(her) an angel of peace, a mighty guardian of soul and body, who will rebuke and banish from him (her) every wicked intention, every spell and evil eye of destructive and envious men; so that, guarded by your, your supplicant may sing to you with thanksgiving: The Lord is my helper, and I shall not be afraid; what can man do to me? And again: I shall fear no evil because you are with me.

For you are God my strength, the powerful ruler, the Prince of Peace, the Father of the age to come. Yes, Lord, our God, spare your creature and save your servant (Name) from every injury and brought about by the evil eye, and keep him (her) safe above every ill. For you are our King and all things are possible to Thee, O Lord. Therefore, we ascribe glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

UOL Thanksgiving Project

November is the month we celebrate Thanksgiving in the U.S. and also the month we commemorate the victims of the Holodomor in Ukraine.

The UOL National Executive Board has decided that our yearly recommended Thanksgiving Project will focus on bringing a greater awareness of the Holodomor while helping the hungry in our communities now and in the future. In our remembrance, we strive to combat hunger in the present.

The UOL has the following recommendations:

- ♦ Conduct a food drive at your parish collecting non-perishable foods and donate them to a local food bank.
- ♦ Have a pop-up drive at your parish with Thanksgiving related foods to distribute to the community.
- ♦ For your advertising and, if possible, label the food donations with the following message:

In 1932, 10 million people perished in an artificial famine in Ukraine.

We pray no one ever goes hungry again.

#Holodomor #UkrainianGenocide #NeverForget

The Christian Caregiving & Missions Commission Thanksgiving Project location on the UOL website has this letter & the message text formatted for a sheet of 30 labels (1" X 2 5/8" each) for you to download and print.

Thanksgiving Project participation photos and ideas are welcomed to be sent to the UOL Publicity Commission at uolpr@uolofusa.org. The UOL will publish the pictures and ideas on the UOL's website, social media locations, and UOL Bulletin. We want to hear YOUR ideas and share YOUR pictures with other chapters & parishes!

If you cannot support a food drive, please consider a fund-raising drive and send the donations to a local food bank or Soup Kitchen.

Let us remember the innocent victims of the Ukrainian Holodomor, honor their memory, and help those in need within our own community at this time of giving!

The Vindicator

November 6, 2022

Today is one of two days each year when everyone has to relearn how to switch the clocks on their ovens, microwaves and cars.

At 2 a.m. today, clocks were to be set back to 1 a.m., giving everyone an extra hour today but ending daylight saving time.....

..... HANDS OF TIME

Time is on no one's mind more than for the owners of two local clock shops, Thumm's Family-Owned Bike & Clock Shop in Warren and Big Ben's Clock

Shop in Austintown.

Both businesses have been staples in their communities for years — Thumm's has been selling bikes for 114 years and clocks for 35 years, and Big Ben's has been in business for 43 years.....

.....Big Ben's sells grandfather clocks, which Ben Mischey said he buys directly from the factory, although he now has only two suppliers, when in the past he had a dozen. His company, and Thumm's, sell cuckoo clocks as well, all from the Black Forest in Germany.....

.....Mischey, who is proudly 89 1/2, began his clock shop after an early retirement from Youngstown Welding. Taking apart and fixing clocks was first a hobby, but now clock retail and repair is the business.

.....“We have people who buy for price and people who buy for quality,” Mischey said. “If you buy for price, it will be out on the curb in five years. If you buy for quality, a clock can be a piece that will last and can get passed down for generations.”

BINGO

Free entry to Win $300 & $200

at EVERY BINGO IN NOVEMBER with 125 people present

Every Monday + 1st Wednesday of the Month

at 6:45

Tuesday, November 11, 2022 is Veterans Day! On this day we remember all those who have served our great nation – the men and women who put themselves in harm's way to defend our way of life and the values we hold dear, along with the freedom which guarantees that life and those values. We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to those killed in the line of duty, those suffering from the effects of their time of service during war and otherwise and, of course, all those who have retired from active duty. The extent of such gratitude cannot be measured. The sacrifices made by our veterans and their families are freedom's foundation. Without the efforts of all the soldiers, airmen, sailors, marines, coast guardsmen, and their families, we would have little comprehension of what that freedom means.

The observance of Veterans Day, November 11, began almost a century ago. In the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, the Allied Nations and Germany declared an armistice—a temporary cessation of hostilities—in World War I. Commemorated as Armistice Day the next year, November 11 became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938. After World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became Veterans Day, a holiday dedicated to U.S. veterans of all wars.

As we mark this year's Veterans Day and prepare for the observance of Thanksgiving Day, is the perfect time for our parish communities to engage in ministry with active troops and the families left behind. Here are some ideas:

Reach out to soldiers

- Honor deploying troops, praying for safety and for peace. Include deployed soldiers on the weekly prayer list. Municipal offices of our cities and towns maintain the list of deployed soldiers and veterans of the community.

- Send birthday cards and personal letters of encouragement.
- Invite children to write thank-you notes and draw pictures for troops, especially at special times such as Veterans Day. This is a good class project.
- Assemble and send care or special treat packages.

Reach out to families of veterans and active duty soldiers

- Identify the military families in your community.
- Are there any wounded veterans? Offer their families assistance with yard work, errands, childcare, respite care and transportation to appointments.
- Start a “veterans only” fellowship. Reservists and veterans, especially in areas remote from military bases, often find it difficult to find others with whom to speak about their military experiences. Those who have experienced combat are especially in need of fellowship with other combat vets. Begin with the veterans of any war who are in your community.
- Holidays can be especially difficult for military families who move often and usually live far from extended family. Invite them to share an activity or meal with your family. Give them good community info like where to get the freshest real Nativity/Christmas tree or the best deal on decorations; what parades, concerts and festivals are held annually; and especially inform about religious services and memorials being offered in the community. Ask what additional support they need through the holidays while their loved one is deployed.
- Invite military family members to participate in community-outreach projects with other members of the parish family.

Always pray for military members and their extended families.

On this Veterans Day 2022, the Council of Bishops, clergy and laity of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA, express profound gratitude to Ukrainian-American veterans and all those veterans whose service in the armed forces preserved the foundation of freedom, justice and equality, upon which this country was built and remains anchored.

As the nation pauses on November 11 to observe Veterans Day, let us all give thanks for our 25 million military veterans, thanking God for their sacrifice, dedication and service to country. Let us pray for those who struggle with disabilities and pain, whether physical, emotional or spiritual, asking God to bring powerful healing and renewal.

Finally, on this Veterans Day weekend and beyond, let us actually say: "Thank you for your service!" to all the veterans we know and do the same with any uniformed active-duty members of the Armed Forces, wherever we may meet them – like in an airport. Today's active-duty personnel will be the veterans of the future and our kind gestures may be the one memory that warms their hearts during difficult times.

A Story about the King and the Poor

There is an old story about a king who did not really like poor people. One day, in order to make fun of the poor and baggers, he called them from all over to his magnificent banquet. However, the banquet and the meal itself was not prepared out of love and mercy. The wicked king just wanted to pour out all his anger once again on them, to humiliate and laugh at them.

So, Placing the poor at the table, he immediately warned them that anyone who will dare to eat dishes with his hands would be punished. Instead, everyone was given spoons of incredible size. They were very long in size like 4 feet long spoons! Of course, it was impossible to eat with such spoons. The satisfied king laughed and was so happy: his plan worked.

But unexpectedly, he saw that the poor began ... feed each other! The evil king could not predict that people would be capable of such an act! The love of simple people prevailed against the wicked ruler and shamed him.
