Sunday Reflection – Palm Sunday

Jesus went to Jerusalem knowing full well what awaited him - betrayal, rejection, and crucifixion. The people of Jerusalem, however, were ready to hail him as their Messianic King! Little did they know what it would cost this king to usher in his kingdom. Jesus' entry into Jerusalem astride a colt was a direct fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Zechariah (9:9): Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion. Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem. Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, and riding on a donkey and upon a colt the foal of a donkey. Those who believe, hope, and love receive Christ's kingdom of peace and eternal life. The colt was a sign of peace. Jesus enters Jerusalem in meekness and humility, as the Messianic King who offers victory and peace to his people. That victory and peace would be secured in the cross and resurrection which would soon take place at the time of Passover.

Jesus Christ came to bring us the kingdom of God. He is the true King who offers peace, joy, and everlasting life for those who accept his kingship. Does the King of glory find a welcome entry in our hearts and homes? Do our walls echo with the praise of his glory? Let us pray: Lord Jesus, be the King and Ruler of my heart, mind, life, and home. May my life reflect your meekness and humility that you may be honored as the King of glory! May I wish you all a most Blessed Holy Week!

Readings for Easter Sunday,

April 4, 2021

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Colossians 3:1-4

John 20:1-9

† Saint of the Week ... St Stephen of Mar Saba

Stephen of Mar Saba was the nephew of Saint John Damascene, who introduced the young boy to monastic life beginning at age 10. When he reached age 24, Stephen served the community in a variety of ways, including guest master. After some time he asked permission to live a hermit's life. The answer from the abbot was yes and no: Stephen could follow his preferred lifestyle during the week, but on weekends he was to offer his skills as a counselor. Stephen placed a note on the door of his cell: "Forgive me, Fathers, in the name of the Lord, but please do not disturb me except on Saturdays and Sundays."

Despite his calling to prayer and quiet, Stephen displayed uncanny skills with people and was a valued spiritual guide. His biographer and disciple wrote about Stephen: "Whatever help, spiritual or material, he was asked to give, he gave. He received and honored all with the same kindness. He possessed nothing and lacked nothing. In total poverty he possessed all things." He died in 794.

Saint Stephen is known for his ability to compromise. What he most wanted was to live in complete and uninterrupted solitude, but he was not granted his wish. Consequently, he gladly chose to accept a lifestyle mixed with both his wishes and those of others.

We pray: Dear God, help me to recognize times when I should compromise and to willingly and happily accept the compromises asked of me. Amen.

IMPORTANT!

Due to the number and length of the readings today and the rest of Holy Week, there will not be bulletin inserts for the readings and hymns. Instead we will be using the missalettes which are available on the table by the bulletins.

Please take your missalette with you when you leave and bring it to each Mass you attend through Easter. And please take just one per family if possible to ensure we have enough for everyone. Thank you!
