

Hello. I am Jade. Started out drawing as a kid and finally one day turned to wanting to make comics and cartoons. Working on this project has been a great opportunity to put my foot in the door to a great future career and has been a ton of fun! Design and art have always been my passion and I hope to continue doing it for a good while.