Chaplain's Report

For unto us a child is born, to us a son is given & the government will be on His shoulders... Be still and know that I am God... I will be exalted in the earth....

Isaiah 9:6 and Psalm 46:10

I was just looking at the Chaplain's Report for December 2016. I based it on "The Christmas Carol" at the Cygnet/Old Town Theatre. I saw it again last night on the opening night of their 100th production. Still as wonderful as always. Still the message of hope, of love. We know that even with the worst of times & people there is a good side to everything. It could be a really small good side or an amazing good side that we have to hunt through the rubble to find.

Now we are searching through the rubble of sales, running in & out of the malls, on-line shopping. We are cramming everything into the countdown to the 25th.

Advent is a time of waiting for arrival. We are waiting for the arrival of the Christ Child. This time of waiting should be a time of the simpler things in life. Getting past the rubble of the masses and into the calm stillness of simplicity. The simple times when the ads weren't for cars with bows on them (seriously how many times does that REALLY happen?), for the latest greatest mobile phone (got to get that new one, even though the old one works fine), for the most expensive diamond.

Please, take moments from the hustle & bustle of the material season & remember the peace & stillness of the real season. Find the good in everyone. Be God's light in the rubble of the world & share the love of New Born King.

Merry Christmas to all!

Ginny Wisley
