

Clarence Weldon Brumley

OIL CITY, LA.

Services for Mr. Clarence Weldon Brumley, 50, of Oil City, La., will be held today, June 5, at 4:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Oil City. The Rev. Frank Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will officiate. He will be assisted by the Rev. Sid Filingim of Vivian. Burial will follow in Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Oil City under the direction of McGuire Funeral Home of Vivian.

Mr. Brumley had resided on Ferry Lake Road in Oil City for many years and had resided in Oil City for 45 years. He died Friday, June 3, 1983 in Shreveport following a brief illness. He was an independent oil operator for a number of years, a member and a deacon of the First Baptist Church of Oil City, and also a member of Gideons International. He was very active in church and civic affairs.

He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Ada Jean Brumley of Oil City; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I.M. Brumley, Sr. of Oil City; one son, Scott Brumley of Oil City; two daughters, Debra Green of Helena, Mon. and Kathy Dykes of Shreveport; one sister, Mrs. Zelma Ann Rivers of Oil City; one brother, I.M. Brumley, Jr. of Oil City; and five grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Thomas Bunting, Jimmy Brumley, Leslie Hedgepeth, Joe Holliman, Maston Robison, Terry Boddie, Howard Carter, and Tommy Jackson.