

THE CAPE AND ISLANDS HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION (CIHA) PRESENTS A

SPECIAL “ZOOM”-BASED SYMPOSIUM:

CAPE COD AND THE PLIMOTH COLONY

- 10 ESSAYS ON THE IMPORTANT ROLES OF CAPE COD WITHIN THE PLIMOTH COLONY IN THE EARLY YEARS

Topics--Interactions between Native Peoples and Cape Settlers, First Families, Religious Trends, Cultures, Legends, Little-Known Facts, and More.

- KEYNOTE SPEAKER: WILLIAM MARTIN, Author of the Historical Novel, “CAPE COD”
- OPPORTUNITIES TO ASK QUESTIONS OF AUTHORS

When: SATURDAY, October 17, 2020, 8:30am to 3:30pm

Registration

__ Using the attached form, send registration and payment of $25, which will provide a mailed copy of the Essays Book, plus the link for virtually attending the Symposium all day on October 17.

Note---Because of time limits, authors will provide summaries of their essays during the Symposium before discussions; it is recommended to read the full essays in the book before the Symposium, and then be able to interact with authors on October 17. Those registering for the Symposium will receive the Zoom “invitation” by October 12.

Deadline: September 30, 2020.

Questions?—Contact David Martin at davidmartindr@aol.com or call 508-527-0460.

MAYFLOWER 2020

SYMPOSIUM REGISTRATION, Oct. 17, 2020

I would like to register for the Symposium, “Cape Cod and the Plimoth Colony”, which includes a copy of the Essays Book, “The Mayflower Stopped Here First” and the computer link for the “live” interactive Symposium on October 17, 2020 @ $25 per person.

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Send Registration Form and check made out to CIHA by regular mail to:

David Martin, CIHA; 10 Colonial Farm Circle, Marstons Mills, MA 02648

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2020