

MAXINE M. HALSTEAD

1911 - 1994

Maxine M. Halstead, 82, native of Ludington and lifelong Bay City resident, died Friday morning, Sept. 9, at Bay Medical Center, following a lingering illness.

She was born Oct. 20, 1911, and was employed for many years at Bay Medical Care Facility prior to her retirement in 1975. She was a member of St. Luke's United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women.

She is survived by six sons and three daughters and their spouses, including James and Judy Halstead of Sebewing, 26 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandson. She also leaves two brothers.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon, Sept. 12, in St. Luke's Church. Interment took place in Elm Lawn Cemetery. Hyatt-Ewald Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider the St. Luke's Church Building Fund.