

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame
Inductee

Minnesota Chorale

Inducted in 2010

Minnesota Chorale was founded in 1972 and ranks among the foremost professional choruses in the United States.

The Chorale has collaborated with the Minnesota Orchestra to perform many masterworks over the years and has traveled around the world.

The Minnesota Chorale was featured in a public television documentary, Never Stop Singing.

In 2006, the Chorale was featured on the Minnesota Orchestra's recording of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, which drew significant critical acclaim and a Grammy nomination for Best Orchestral Performance.