

E. Burke Ross Jr. has 20 years of extensive experience in private equity investing. Currently Mr. Ross serves as the Chairman of the Investment Committee at Palm Beach Capital.

From 1973 to 1982, he was employed at Chemical Bank in a variety of commercial lending positions and at the time of his resignation was in charge of the bank's Chicago office, which was responsible for Midwestern U.S. commercial lending. He was a Partner at Wesray Capital Corporation from 1983 to 1991, during which time the firm acquired approximately 30 companies with combined revenues exceeding $15 billion such as Six Flags Corporation, Outlet Communications, Atlas Van Lines, The Permian Corporation, and Avis Rent-a-Car.

With the winding down of Wesray's investment activities in the early 1990's, Ross turned his attention to building a small, family-owned, New Jersey-based radio station company through the acquisition of four New Jersey-based radio stations, which he acquired for an aggregate purchase price of $15.5 million from 1991 to 1996. In 2001, he sold the radio stations to Greater Media Corporation for $80 million.

In 2000, Mr. Ross changed his legal residency to Palm Beach, Florida, having been a lifelong seasonal visitor. Shortly thereafter he was introduced to the Principals of Palm Beach Capital and subsequently became the firm's largest investor in the Entertainment Resources and CP&S Investments. Mr. Ross serves as the Chairman of the Investment Committee at Palm Beach Capital. He is a graduate of Princeton University and the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business.
