

PFC volunteers help make campers' experience special!

WHEN YOU GIVE, YOU GET THE BIGGEST REWARD— AFTER ALL, IT'S ALWAYS BETTER TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE

One of the Pro Football Camp's most fundamental beliefs is that we are stronger together, with the support of not only our professional athletes, our campers, and their families, but also of the Colorado Springs community. PFC was founded as a community event. For PFC to operate, it requires volunteers from the community, donations for the scholarship program, and support from the business community.

The Colorado Springs community has helped to support Pro Football Camp financially. Colorado Institute of Sports Medicine Physical Therapy provides significant financial support that enables the camp to be priced so competitively. Additionally, a number of businesses host fundraisers benefitting the PFC. Among these businesses are Bad Daddy's Burger Bar and Grill, Marco's Pizza, and Brass Tap—each of whom hosted a fundraiser in April. These fundraisers are helping to ensure Pro Football Camp's scholarship program can give every kid—especially underserved kids who otherwise could not attend—who wants to attend camp the ability to do just that.

In addition to the generous donations by local businesses, Pro Football Camp receives critical support from numerous volunteers who take their time over the three days of camp to help set up, run, and break down the camp each day. These volunteers arrive hours before camp starts each day, setting up Gatorade hydration stations, tents, cones for drills, and remain after the campers have finished getting everything packed up again. Our volunteers also serve as coaches who help make sure that every kid is getting one-on-one coaching and remaining active in between drill repetitions.

A final example is the assistance of School District 49, and Vista Ridge High School in particular, for the use of their athletic fields during the week of camp. The generous contributions of District 49 ensure that we are able to host our 300+ campers, athletes, and volunteers every year, as well as providing the tools necessary to keeping everyone hydrated with Gatorade, another PFC partner.

No one entity alone could fully plan, fund, and execute the Pro Football Camp. We are very fortunate to have the support of hundreds of people from the Colorado Springs, Manitou Springs, Falcon, Pueblo, and Monument communities each lending their support to the PFC. When all of these disparate forces are brought together, it allows the Pro Football Camp to truly flourish and brighten the lives of every camper's summer, as well as the lives of the individuals and companies who help put the PFC together.
