From the Principal's Desk

Humility

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves.

*Each of you should not only to your own interests,
but also to the interests of others.*

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:3-5

These are words that burrow deep into the soul. Humility is not something that comes naturally to us. The three-year old who figures out how to tie his shoes runs to his mother with a pride-filled smile, directing her attention to his feet and his accomplishment. His greatest desire at that moment is to receive her praise. That desire for others to recognize our greatness and the grand things we have accomplished does not diminish with age.

Scripture does not just command humility, it gives us the ultimate example. Of all the people who have ever walked upon this planet, Jesus certainly had every reason to think that He was better than everyone else. The fact is that He was. As true God and Creator of everything, the power, wisdom, glory, and authority that He had could not even be compared to that of the greatest ruler our world has ever seen.

Yet He did not pound His chest and stand on the highest mountain for all to see His greatness and praise Him. His greatest goal was not for all people in the world to serve Him, waiting on Him hand and foot, and immediately providing for His every desire. Instead we are told that Jesus, "Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made Himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!" (Philippians 2:6-8)

Instead of looking to His own interests, Jesus was focused on yours. Setting aside His glory, He humbly entered into our world with one purpose: to sacrifice Himself for you and pay the price for your sins. That meant humbling Himself to the point of being publicly humiliated and executed, suffering the wrath of God for sins He never committed.

Thank God that Jesus showed such humility! In doing so, He not only provides us with an example, He saves us from our sinful lack of humility.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I struggle with humility. I long for the praise of others. I would rather have others serve me than give my life in service to others. Forgive me. Thank You for Your love and humility. Thank You for Your willingness to place the needs of others, my needs, above Your own. Thank You for dying that I may live. Amen.
