NATIONAL Eucharistic Pilgrimage

On the morning of May 18, twenty-four missionaries and their support teams will do something never before attempted...

They will set out from the northern, eastern, southern, and western edges of the nation, processing with Our Eucharistic Lord over bridges and mountains, through America's small towns and large cities to Indianapolis for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress.

THE FOUR ROUTES

MARIAN ROUTE (NORTH)

STARTING LOCATION: Mississippi Headwaters, Lake Itasca, MN

ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON ROUTE (EAST)

STARTING LOCATION: New Haven, CT

ST. JUAN DIEGO ROUTE (SOUTH)

STARTING LOCATION: Brownsville, TX

ST. JUNIPERO SERRA ROUTE (WEST)

From our Pacific coast, the western arm will cross the Rocky Mountains and Great Plains. Named after the "Apostle of California," this is the longest and most challenging route covering over 2,200 miles!

A Walk Through The Holy Mass

by Will Wright at www.catholic-link.org

Different portions of the mass will be shared each week

The Mass begins with an entrance antiphon or a hymn. The priest then reverences the altar with a bow and kiss. This is done because the altar is not merely a table. The altar is Christ standing sacramentally in the midst of His people.

The priest then makes the Sign of the Cross, greeting the people in words from Sacred Scripture. The priest says, "The Lord be with you," and we the people respond: "and with your spirit." This is actually a profound theological statement.

We are praying for the soul of the ordained priest who we believe has been configured, through Holy Orders and the power of the Holy Spirit, to Christ in a special way. When we say, "and with your spirit," we are not simply wishing him well. We acknowledge his priestly soul and the fact that he is acting in the Person of Christ.
