

Pacific Northwest Theater Co.

Fall Classes now enrolling!

Basic Stage Combat

A fun, lively, and stimulating class where you learn the basics of hand to hand combat for stage. Great for anyone who enjoys acting, action movies, or fun new ways to stay active. The class focuses on basic technique so that all the moves are done safely while creating an exciting realistic and fun fight scene. You must be at least 8 years old to sign up for the class. No previous experience necessary.

Acting for Preteens

An exciting class where kids will learn dramatic ways of having fun while gaining knowledge of basic theater technique. The kids will be challenged in areas of theater movement, facial expression, and character development while learning fun theater games and creating new friendships. This class is aimed at kids ages 9-16

Visit www.PNWTheater.com for more info and to sign up!

All classes are under the supervision of trained theater professionals with many years of experience working with kids of all ages. We believe that no child should be turned away due to financial reasons and have scholarships available if needed.

For questions contact PNTC at info@pnwtheater.com or StevenWWells@yahoo.com