

Krohn, Kathleen

Kathleen Krohn, 77, of Colfax Township near Elkton died Monday afternoon, Sept. 10, 2001, at St. Mary's Medical Center in Saginaw. She was born on Oct. 12, 1923, at the home of her parents, the late Herman and Lillian (Gregor) Gettel in Sebewaing. On Oct. 7, 1925, she was united in marriage to Wayne A. Krohn at the Methodist parsonage in Kilmanagh. She and her husband farmed in Oliver Township and had owned and operated the Elkton Dairy Bar for eight years before selling it in 1965. She was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church, charter member of Century Oaks Golf Club, and enjoyed many hobbies including bowling, golf, gardening and fishing. She also enjoyed the time she spent with her family, especially the grand and great-grandchildren. Surviving are her husband, Wayne; her daughter, Kay Thompson and her husband, Floyd; three sons, Terry Krohn and his wife, Cathy, Jim Krohn and his friend, Jean Rubble, all of Elkton and Doug Krohn and his wife, Chris, of Colfax Township; twelve grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and her sister, Viola Dembowski, of Sebewaing. Kathleen was preceded in death by a great grandson, Kyle; her sister, Orpha Webber; and a brother, Harlan Gettel. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 13, 2001, at the Elkton United Methodist Church. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Elkton and from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Thursday at the church. Memorials may be given to the Elkton United Methodist Church.
