Book RETIRED WONDER WOMAN for Conventions, Shows & Parties

From AMERICA'S GOT TALENT to Your Next Event!

(Your Location, Worldwide)—Fresh off a startling appearance on season 12 of America's Got Talent, strolling comedian RETIRED WONDER WOMAN is ready to bring her never-ending battle for laughter, lipstick and uploads to your next convention, party, business promotion, sports competition or trade show.

Decked out in superhero red, white and blue—in addition to old-lady glasses, fuzzy slippers and sagging bustline—RETIRED WONDER WOMAN blows cosplayers, models and other mere mortals out of the water with her razor-sharp wit and ceaseless dedication to character. Watch guests bust a gut as she totters around your venue flirting, ad-libbing and posing for photos that are guaranteed to find their way onto social media.

“A very funny lady!” says AGT’s Howie Mandel. Pop culture event producer Bernie Bregman calls her “the comedic force you never saw coming,” while artists, vendors and celebrities big and small have personally thanked her for bringing comic relief to their tables and exhibits.

Played by a former award-winning network news reporter, RETIRED WONDER WOMAN been featured in dozens of websites, newspapers, magazines, blogs, podcasts and viral photos and videos. In 2017, she made it all the way on to the America’s Got Talent stage but required assistance getting off.

Based in the PA-NJ-DE area, Retired Wonder Woman is available to travel. To book, call (503) 395-0144 or email RetiredWonderWoman@gmail.com
