To all Vendors:

Slainte'!

This letter is to introduce you to the Annual Kerr County Celtic Festival, Highland Dance Competition and Highland Games to be held in Ingram, Texas at the Hill Country Arts Foundation on Highway 39. The festival will be held on October 6 & 7, 2018. It is our hope to have this be an incredible addition to the Celtic Festival Circuit that so enriches our heritage in this part of the nation. It is our goal to bring teaching events as well as fun and entertainment to one and all. Please "Like" the Kerr County Celtic Festival on Facebook, and keep up with our progress and announcements, such as a web link to our host hotel, Inn of the Hills in Kerrville. Inn of the Hills is offering the festival participants and patrons a special room rate for a double queen and/or single king room. The booking code for our group is KERRCELTIC. We are currently checking in with local RV campgrounds for rates for those who wish to camp or bring their RV's. Arrangements will be posted on our Facebook Page as well as any additional websites.

Our site is the Hill Country Arts Foundation/Point Theatre, along the beautiful Guadalupe River in Ingram. This is also the location of Texas' own Stonehenge, which will be a central focus to our Festival. This will be a two-day event with a full set of Highland Games both days, as well as performances by pipe bands, singers, dancers, story tellers, etc. We also hope to encourage any artisans, historical re-enactors, and other like participants to come help make this event one to remember. Again, we look forward to seeing you in the beautiful Texas Hill Country, and to be able to wish you all "Cead mil'y Failte"; "A hundred thousand Welcomes!"
