2017-2018 Course Offerings, Student Expectations & Tuition Forms

Introduction to Hebrew Language - Grade 9

Course Code: LY1AD

Prerequisites: None

This course will equip students with the skills necessary to communicate with native speakers of modern Hebrew. In addition to reading age & language appropriate passages, students will explore various aspects of Israeli culture, social customs & native arts. Students will participate in cultural events and activities, and utilize technology to link language with culture.

Open to qualifying Grade 8 students via the Reach Ahead program.

The Jewish Identity - Grade 9

Course Code: HRE13

Prerequisites: None

Students enrolled in this course will investigate concepts around dedication to Judaism and Jewish studies. Students will explore what it means to be Jewish, the importance of each individual within Judaism, and how to interact with the Jewish community. Students will explore how Jewish ideals, such as Chesed (kindness) and Tzedakah (charity), are of paramount importance to the Jewish people and the global community. Students will work to develop an appreciation for their respective communities and for their community leaders.

Open to qualifying Grade 8 students via the Reach Ahead program.

Theoretical & Applied Ethics - Grade 10

Course Code: HRE23

Prerequisites: None

This course invites learners to inquire around the timeless relevance of Jewish ideals. Students will be introduced to foundational Jewish beliefs, and will discover relevant applications of Jewish theology to modern social and ethical dilemmas. Students will be challenged to apply critical thinking and problem-solving skills to observe how Judaism relates to the fields of medicine, business, law, as well as the family unit. Students will also explore the significance of classical Rabbinical Judaism as it relates to past, present and future.

Scriptures through History - Grade 11

Course Code: HRE33

Prerequisites: None

This course will provide students with a deeper understanding of the Hebrew Bible and its Rabbinic commentaries. Through the study and application of classical Jewish texts to modern experiences, students will succeed in forming an attachment to their heritage. A secondary course focus will include an exploration on Jewish history, geographical-specific Jewish cultures, and traditions associated with everyday Jewish life.

Philosophy: Questions and Theories - Grade 12 (University Preparation)

Course Code: HZT4U

Prerequisites: Any university or university/college preparation course in Social Sciences and Humanities, English, or Canadian and World Studies.

This course addresses three (or more) of the main areas of philosophy: metaphysics, logic, epistemology, ethics, social and political philosophy, and aesthetics. Students will learn critical-thinking skills, the main ideas expressed by philosophers from a variety of the world's traditions, how to develop and explain their own philosophical ideas, and how to apply those ideas to contemporary social issues and personal experiences. The course will also help students refine the tactics they use in researching and investigating topics in philosophy.

Student Expectations

- LY1AD will take place daily from 3:00 PM until 3:45 PM at the Hamilton Hebrew Academy building (60 Dow St.).
 - All other classes will take place on Tuesday afternoons from 5:00 PM until 7:30 PM at Hamilton Hebrew High (235 Bowman St.)
 - I understand that in order to receive an Ontario Secondary School Credit, I will need to complete 110 hours for each course, 80 of which through regularly scheduled classroom learning.
 - I understand that the remaining 30 hour requirements will occur through experiential learning programs in the form of activities, classes and events, which may occur outside of regularly scheduled weekly classes.
 - I understand that all HHH students are expected to physically attend classes, programs and events, and are to arrive on time. Barring extenuating circumstances, I understand that repeated late attendances and/or absences may lead to my credit being withheld.
 - I understand that I am responsible for maintaining appropriate behavior while attending all HHH classes and functions. I understand that inappropriate behaviors, including verbal and/or physical abuse of a fellow student or teacher, may result in my expulsion from my course program with no credit awarded, at the jurisdiction of the HHH principal.
 - The primary communication platform to be used between teachers, students and parents will be Google Classroom. I understand it is my responsibility to routinely check my course's Google Classroom page for course updates, announcements, and schedule.
 - The email address that I will use to enroll in my class's Google Classroom group and continue correspondence is:
