woodBRIDGE to ART – A Woodbridge 350th Event

Woodbridge, NJ - Woodbridge Public Library will host woodBRIDGE to ART: a 350th anniversary celebration, a special after-hours, public art show with live music, to celebrate Woodbridge Township's 350th Anniversary on Friday, December 14, 2018 from 6:30 – 9:00 PM, at the Woodbridge Main Library, 1 George Frederick Plaza, Woodbridge, NJ. An exhibit of children's drawings and paintings inspired by Woodbridge Township will be displayed in the first floor meeting room and the work of more than 70 local artists, in a variety of mediums, will be on display on the second floor.

Performances by local musicians Jeff Linden, Cold Weather Company and Woodbridge's own The Afraid Brigade will be sponsored by The Friends of Woodbridge Library. Ribbons, whose design was inspired by the ribbons bestowed at the historic Woodbridge Speedway, will be awarded in each medium as well as in a special Woodbridge-inspired category.

In October of this year Woodbridge Public Library began collaboration with the Barron Arts Center to co-sponsor a call for artists. More than seventy local artists responded and their creations will fill the Main Library for the evening.

woodBRIDGE to ART: a 350th anniversary celebration is sponsored by the Woodbridge Township 350th Anniversary Committee, is free and open to the public. Registration is not required. Visit woodbridgepubliclibrary/artshow, or call the library at 732-634-4450, for more information.
