Knowledge is power! More women are successful in their careers today and seek to successfully integrate their work and home lives to provide for their families. Educating yourself on the Tax Reform for individuals and small business owners is a key financial strategy to implement. Marsha will be sharing her life experiences which have benefited her personally and professionally throughout her career.

Marsha has enjoyed a successful career in the financial industry including being an entrepreneur, small business owner, a Registered Tax Return Preparer with the IRS, and currently as a licensed Financial Advisor.
