Sample Answers to Paragraph Questions

Below are additional paragraph questions and samples on how they can be answered. Use these samples as a guide when writing your answers.

Chapter 2

-Why did the English not try to colonize America for the next 80 years after John Cabot’s arrival?

The English government had little money, and Cabot found no gold or other wealth. The English people had no compelling reason to migrate to America. Also, Spain had claimed America. At the time, Spain and England were allies. Any attempt to settle America would have upset the balance.

Chapter 14

-In what ways did the expansion of railroads spur America’s industrial growth?

By linking the nation, railroads helped increase the size of markets. With the increase of markets, industries had greater opportunities to sell their goods. Additionally, the railroad companies were huge consumers. They spent extraordinary amounts of money on steel, coal, and timber among other needs. Industries benefited from the increased demand for their products.
