

Certificates of Origin

Columbia SC - August 24th, 2017

Do your products qualify for preferential duty rates? Understanding the Rules of Origin for NAFTA and other FTA's will expedite your exports sales to those markets and keep your shipments flowing through Customs. Getting the paperwork right the first time will avoid costly mistakes that chew on your profit margin. Label and documentation requirements are different for each market - Understand the Rules of Origin of your certificate and the common errors - when you should or shouldn't fill one out. We'll also provide an overview of other FTA's including Colombia, Panama and S. Korea - Formulas for determining regional value content or a change in tariff classification and lots more!

REGISTER NOW!

Click HERE to be directed to registration page

WHEN: Thursday, August 24th, 2017
Check in at 8:30am
9am - 4pm

WHERE: SC Chamber
1301 Gervais Str
Suite 1100
Columbia, SC
29208

COST: $250 before August 14, $295 thereafter.

Questions: Contact Dorette Coetsee
U.S. Commercial Service
dorette.coetsee@trade.gov
803-397-4590

This class will be taught by Mr. Mike Allocca, President of Allocca Enterprises, a private sector provider of on-site & web based international trade compliance education and training

Space is limited! Please REGISTER by August 21.

Connecting you to global markets.