All currently enrolled children and their siblings (members and non-members of Temple Beth Or) are guaranteed a space (not a specific class) for the next school year, as long as your child is properly enrolled before registration opens to the general public on February 5, 2018.

Temple Beth Or Preschool strives to support Temple Beth Or in its effort to create and nurture a positive, dynamic Jewish community. In the spirit of that community, the Preschool allows Temple members to register before members of the general public, as well as before already-enrolled students whose families are not members. Part of creating community is seeking members with a long-term interest in the life of the Temple. In exchange for preferential treatment, the Preschool and Temple request that families who join the Temple, or who are members when registration opens in January 2018 and renew their Temple membership in July 2018 when the Temple's fiscal year begins.

Members in good standing when school begins in August will be able to keep the class assignments they received during the spring registration period. Families whose membership pledge is not current will lose their child's class assignment to the next Temple member on the waiting list.

When returning registration materials, please make sure to include:

- ✓ Both pages (please sign page 1)
- ✓ The registration fee ($300 for TBO members, $325 for non members)
- ✓ Any requests for specific teaching styles
- ✓ Any paperwork we need that will help us determine how best to serve your child (if applicable, as outlined on page 1)
