August 5th, 2016

<<Location>>, BiaoBo Technologies Limited has announced the launch of its new programmed web application – www.mytotalworld.com. The application is a dream web platform that the world has never seen before as it is the first integrated web application that combines the power of online social network systems (SNS) with shopping mall network systems, giving its users' the best of social and shopping experience imaginable. The application was launched August 1, 2016.

Programmed and developed by BiaoBo Technologies Limited, the application is a genius innovation; it combines all social networks that exist today, such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn etc. The application would cover a major part of a person's life and organize all areas of its user's life.

"My Total World is a brand-new online platform; a dream of which the world has never seen before. It is the first of its kind – where one can manage, track, post and blog to all his social networks, profiles and personal interests with one application – and will soon also include mobile and a full online shopping mall network system to provide the best shopping experience imaginable." said by the CEO of MTW, Michael Holstein.

Commonly, social network systems work disjointedly with shopping mall network systems and has never been brought together, MyTotalWorld.com is the first application to bring these two very important but distinct worlds together for its users to enjoy. This achievement is a breakthrough in information technology, a system where all social networks and profiles are managed in one application. It can track, post and blog to all his social networks, profiles and personal interests with this application. The development of the mobile version is in progress and expected soon.

Mytotalworld.com encompasses all of a person's life and dynamics: personal, family, group, work dynamic, school, and spirituality or church in itself and promises a great user experience. The application guarantees the best product price at any time. For more information and to register, please visit www.mytotalworld.com.

About MyTotalWorld

The most instinct attribute of Internet is connection, no matter how it represents. Internet allows the connection between people and information, the connection between people and commodity, and the connection between people and services. My Total World (MTW) will be the platform for connecting the people and the world, which uses SNS for communication. In social communication, the connection between commodity and services is completed via sharing and recommendation. To learn more, visit www.mytotalworld.com
