OPENING

Lent Dialogue

Behold, now is the acceptable time;

now is the day of salvation.

Turn us again, O God of our salvation,

that the light of your face may shine on us.

May your justice shine like the sun;

and may the poor be lifted up.

Thanksgiving for Light

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, O God,
for in the beginning you called light into being,
and you set light in the sky to govern night and day.
In a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night
you led your people into freedom.

Enlighten our darkness by the light of your Christ:
may your Word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path;
for you are merciful, and you love your whole creation,
and with all your creatures we give you glory,
through your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
now and forever.

Amen.

PSALMODY

Psalm 130

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;

O Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If you were to keep watch over sins, O Lord, who could stand?

Yet with you is forgiveness, in order that you may be feared.

I wait for you, O Lord; my soul waits; in your word is my hope.

My soul waits for the Lord more than those who keep watch for the morning, more than those who keep watch for the morning.

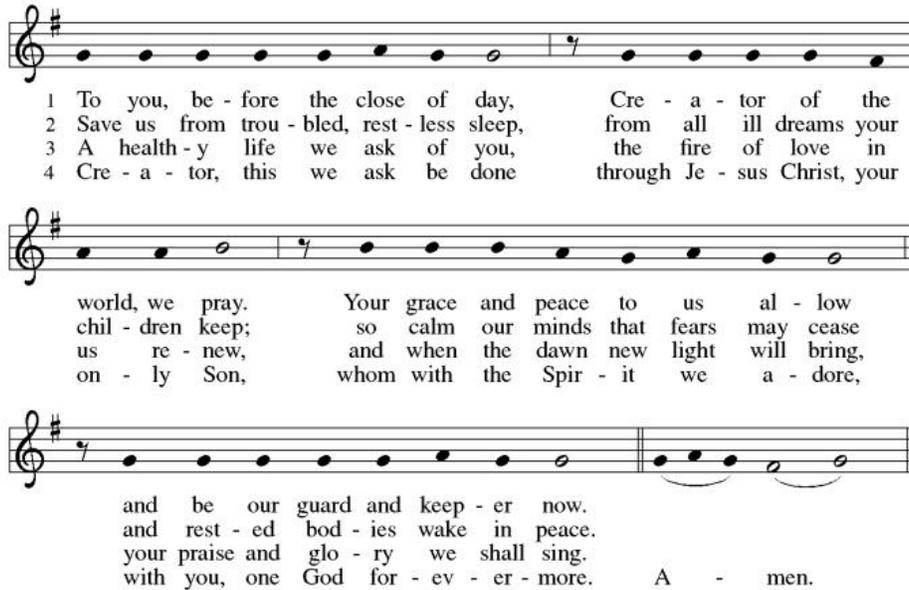

O Israel, wait for the Lord, for with the Lord there is steadfast love;
with the Lord there is plenteous redemption.

For the Lord shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

(Please observe a long moment of silence for contemplation)

WORD

Reading

Ephesians 5:8-14

For once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light— for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good and right and true. Try to find out what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to mention what such people do secretly; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, “Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

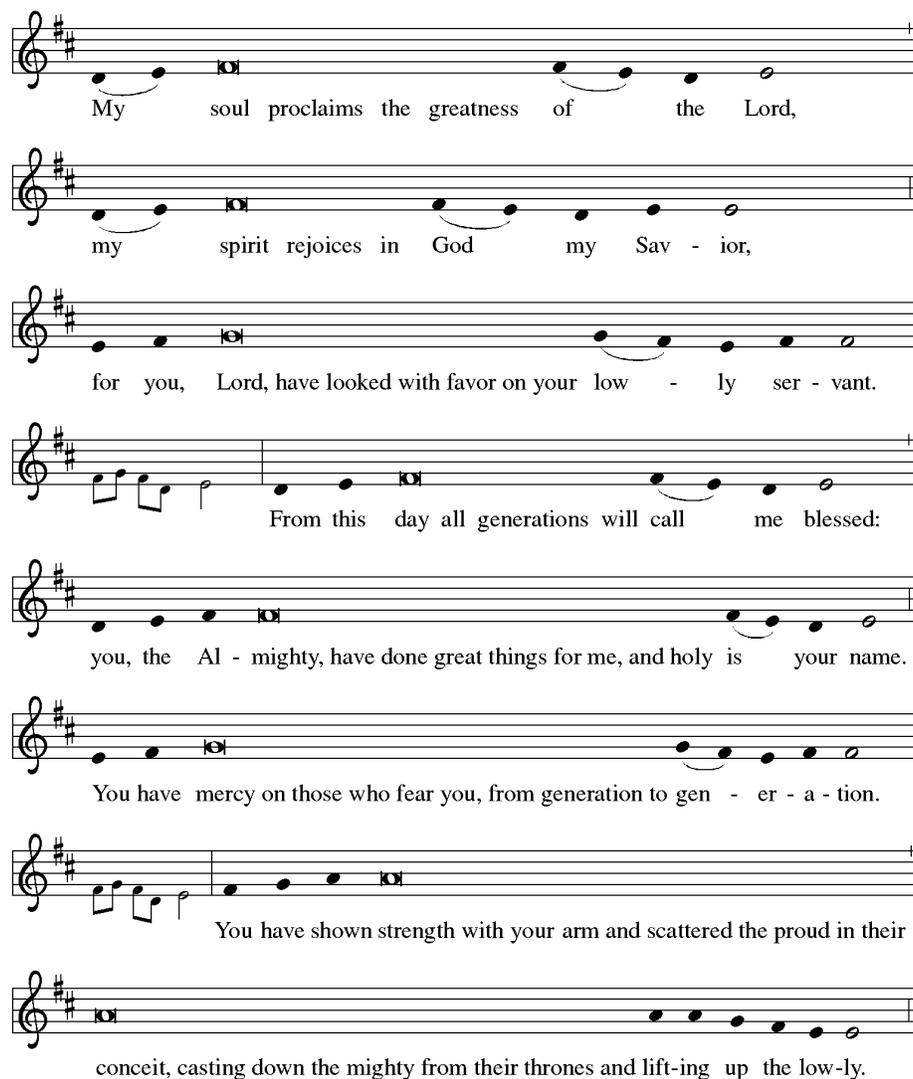

(Please observe a long moment of silence for contemplation)

Dialogue

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors
in many and various ways by the prophets,
but in these last days God has spoken to us by the Son.

Gospel Canticle

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Sav - ior,
for you, Lord, have looked with favor on your low - ly ser - vant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
you, the Al - mighty, have done great things for me, and holy is your name.
You have mercy on those who fear you, from generation to gen - er - a - tion.
You have shown strength with your arm and scattered the proud in their conceit, casting down the mighty from their thrones and lift-ing up the low-ly.

You have filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich a - way empty.

You have come to the aid of your servant Israel, to remember the prom - ise of mer - cy, the promise made to our forebears, to Abraham and his chil - dren for - ev - er.

Prayer Litany

In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the health of the creation, for abundant harvests that all may share, and for peaceful times, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For public servants, the government, and those who protect us; for those who work to bring peace, justice, healing, and protection in this and every place, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who travel, for those who are sick and suffering, and for those who are in captivity, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance in the time of affliction, wrath, danger, and need,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all servants of the church, gathered near and far,
and for all people who await from the Lord great and abundant mercy,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.

(A time of silence follows)

Giving thanks for all who have gone before us and are at rest, rejoicing in the communion of all the saints, we commend ourselves, one another, and our whole life to you, through Christ our Lord.

To you, O Lord.

O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Fa-ther in heav - en, hal - lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in heav - en.
Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of tri - al and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the pow'r, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

Blessing

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Almighty God, the Father, + the Son, and the Holy Spirit, bless and pre-serve us.
A - men.

(Please share a greeting of peace with one another)

What is Lent?

Lent is an ancient period of preparation leading up to the springtime festival of the Resurrection of our Lord, commonly called Easter. It lasts 40 days, which is modeled after the Gospel story of Jesus fasting and praying in the wilderness for 40 days at the beginning of his ministry. So, we do the same: we fast, we pray, and we prepare for the ministry ahead that God calls us to.

What is Vespers?

Vespers is part of the historic prayer pattern known as daily prayer offices. In many monastic communities, faithful members gather together every day for simple prayer services at certain proscribed times throughout the day. These services often include music, readings from the Psalms and other important Scripture passages, and almost always prioritize time for quiet, contemplative reflection. Most importantly, they provide a rhythm to daily life that names God's persistent presence among us always, and asks us to ponder what that means for us as God's people.

We as Lutherans have adapted this daily prayer practice for use during the Lenten season. In our tradition, we gather on Wednesdays for the eveningtime prayer office of Vespers, which is simply its latin name. There are three prayer offices included in our hymnal:

Matins - morning prayer ("matt-inns")
Vespers - evening prayer ("vess-purrs")
Compline - night prayer ("comp-lynn")

Each time we gather for Vespers, the majority of the service will be the same. The same structure, the same responses, the same prayers. Oftentimes, a new scripture reading or musical selection will be offered for contemplation.

We encourage you to embrace the rhythm and contemplative spirit of Vespers in this holy season, and open yourself to God's presence as we continue through Lent.
