Pastor's Corner

I'd like my salutations this month to be on the more personal side. I am so thankful to God for the many and varied ways he has extended his grace to me in connection to my daughter's (Renee) recent health crisis (heart failure in early April). First, for the many, many people who have shown genuine concern and compassion, thank you for all your love and gestures (please continue your prayers for her health for she needs it) – I can't thank you enough for all the support. I have felt God's presence and providence in so many places: *in his Spirit's leading to go down to FL, *in safe & efficient travel, *in the gracious offer by Kelly's sister and brother in law (Jodi & Jay live in the same city as Renee) to give me a place to stay while there (what wondrous hospitality – even their two dogs were overwhelmingly friendly – we're talking 100+ lb. rambunctious sweethearts). Then, there was how God timed things so I could take Renee to 3 different doctor appointments (PCP, cardiologist, urologist), and how it afforded better opportunity to understand what was going on with her medically, and also the plan for her to get better (specifics w/ medication, diet & lifestyle change, etc.). I could go into greater detail, but that's best left for personal conversation. Suffice it to say: God is good, his Church is a support and a refuge, and his many agents of grace surround us – going before us, and waiting for us when we “come home.” As I continue to stay in contact with Renee, I'll be mindful of the ways people are interceding for us, and aware of God's foregoing faithfulness.

FAITH

There are different ways to give to the mission of the church. If you choose to give electronically, click the button on our website or you can also make it even easier by using the Vanco Faith App! (search Vanco App in the App Store or Google Play). When you search for our church, put in "Puckety Presbyterian Church" For more information on how to use Vanco Faith click the link on pucketychurch.org. Thank you for your generosity!

From the Hearts & Hands of Session

How have we been keeping Puckety's Mission in front of us this past month?

*As for personally and collectively, "Honoring God," you've probably noticed we've had a couple more contemporary services, framing the worship time in new ways so that we don't allow our routines or traditions to get us "stuck," and so we can truly "sing to the LORD a new song" as the Psalms say. We've also had an intentional focus in the messages about consecrating who we are and what we have to God who has given it to us in the first place.

*The Capital Campaign Team is happy to report that we have $62,580.85 collected as of April 21, and we have officially applied for the $70,000 loan via PILP. The Upkeep Team has contracted with Smullen Asphalt for the parking lot (including milling) to be done at the end of June (after VBS)! Please watch for other ways to support the campaign (fundraising events are coming up in the Fall), but for now, please take advantage of the Raise Right Gift Card program – because you get 100% of the value you purchase (100's of participating retailers), and the retailer gives the church a percentage. With just a little forethought, you spend what you already were going to (gas, food, gifts, house items) and the church benefits – it's like the easiest thing ever – contact Matt Wehrle or Alice Knopfel for more information (724-396-6775 or 412-400-9463). We hope to have orders ready after worship on Sunday, May 5th (let family/friends with graduating students know! – great gifts) –

*Finally, for the 3rd part of our Mission – to "Improve our Community & World" – the Outreach Team sent members to the Burrell Connections event at Huston Middle School (4/11) – Matt Wehrle, Mick Dober, Jolene Kostelansky and Pastor Brian. It was a productive time of presenting various ministries at Puckety to many people – including providing activities (sand art, cornhole w/ prizes) to over a dozen children. ALSO, we'd like to give a shout out to two of our youth: Owen Taylor and Addison Zilka who intentionally brought some of their friends or fellow students by our booth to help us highlight our youth group ("Great job you two!") In August, we hope to do some more connecting with the National Honor Society and "Interact" Club at BHS to start up a "Homework Helpers" ministry (with the goal to offer it weekly on our grounds) - NOTE: we will need YOUR help with this – though Burrell students may give the primary educational assistance, we need monitors and helpers! Please reach out to Matt Wehrle to inquire!!! Lastly, take advantage of the "Honor Your Mom by Supporting a Mom" project for Origins (formerly TryLife) in Lower Burrell – please drop off the specified items in the big pink box no later than May 12th (Mother's Day).

Graduation Recognition

Graduate Sunday is scheduled for June 2nd (10:00 AM); any/all names and information of graduates (high school, college, trade school) must be in by May 12th at the absolute latest (including any pictures desired to be included in presentation) to Beth Dober – 724-681-0939 or elizabeth.dober@yahoo.com. Please also inform the church office by 5/12 as well.

Musical Notes: As we approach the end of the 2023-2024 choir season, (so fast!!) I want to take this opportunity to thank God for the blessing of having such wonderful, dedicated, talented people in our music program. God has enriched Puckety with a very special choir, when so so many churches are struggling to hold on to just a handful of singers. Yes, we too have been hit with illnesses, family obligations, and more, but that is why having a group as we do is so important...there's always someone who has your back. I encourage anyone who loves to sing to start back with us in September. We need all voices, and we will find you a seat!

We would like to thank the wonderful women who take the time to prepare and teach our youth during Children's Church each Sunday. It has been so awesome to watch how the program has grown over the past year! You bless the youth time and again with your ministry in this program. The ladies are as follows: Chari Burtner, Brenda McAllister and Jolene Kostelansky. Darla Cuppy and Pamela McAllister have also been known to assist. THANK YOU and we can't wait to see what God has in store for next year!

A devotion for you -- Read Colossians 3:8-15

“Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.” (Colossians 3:13). This sounds simple enough. It’s not; it’s one of the hardest things you’ll ever do. I’ve been thinking (and praying) a lot about the situation between Israel and Hamas and Iran ... How does a Christian approach this kind of complex situation? John Paul Lederach spent most of his life pursuing peace in some of the most troubled regions of the world — Somalia, Colombia, Nepal, and Northern Ireland, to name a few. Central to any effort at peacemaking, he says, is the ability to imagine yourself in a relationship with your enemy. If we can’t imagine having a relationship with our enemies, our own efforts to find the peace God promises will prove fruitless. But how does one begin to imagine such a thing, particularly if the offense has been grievous? It’s one thing to imagine a relationship with a colleague who has bad-mouthed you in front of the boss, but quite another to imagine a relationship with an abusive ex-spouse. It may seem too painful and far too risky. Failing to do so, however, might be even riskier, because it places your heart in jeopardy of being destroyed by anger, bitterness, and depression. To suggest that people imagine having a relationship w/ their enemy may sound like folly. Isn’t that the height of stupidity? Doesn’t the advice sound preposterous? One would be tempted to think so if it weren’t for the words of Jesus instructing His followers to take the outrageous step of offering their cheek for yet another slap. He told them to love their enemies, to bless those who curse them. We are tempted to dismiss Christ’s teaching as being too hard or impractical for ordinary people to follow. It may even sound naïve. But Jesus prevents us from ignoring Him by following His own advice (he lived it) — and following it all the way to the Cross. More than any other figure in history, Jesus was able to envision a relationship w/ the enemy. It’s precisely this ability that made His death possible. Paul reminds us of this: “Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now He has reconciled you by Christ’s physical body through death to present you holy in His sight, without blemish and free from accusation.” (Col. 1:21-22) God started this whole business by believing that His enemies could become transformed into His friends. Listen again to the heart of the gospel: “Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:7-8)

As Christ’s followers, we are to be catalysts of transformation, keeping the cycle going by imitating Jesus in our own most difficult relationships. In some cases, envisioning a relationship with an enemy may involve having some measure of contact with the offender. This was what happened when Pope John Paul II met with Mehmet Ali Agca in an Italian prison in order to forgive him for attempting to assassinate him. It also happens when our enemy is someone we can’t avoid, like a neighbor or a colleague. What then is required? Something still painfully difficult — as victims of another’s sin, we must at least imagine the possibility of forgiveness and reconciliation. To do so requires not that we drop our demand for justice, but that we repudiate our desire for vengeance. In such cases, our relationship with our enemies will primarily consist of praying for them, asking God to transform them, and forgiving them from the heart whether or not they are repentant. A man was working a crossword puzzle and asked, "What is a four-letter word for a strong emotional reaction toward a difficult person?" Someone standing nearby said, "The answer is hate." A lady interrupted and said, "No, the answer is love!" Everyone is working that same crossword puzzle, but the way you answer is up to you. As you’ve been reading this, what person or group came to your mind? We all know what area or issue of unforgiveness we are hanging onto, because it’s exactly where we are stuck in anger, resentment, or depression. Are you stuck? Ask the Lord to help you imagine the possibility of forgiveness and reconciliation.

Vacation Bible School

SCUBA VBS is almost here! Make sure you register the kids in your family! Please visit our website (go to News & Events page) or use the QR code below to register your kids (ages 5 to entering 6th grade - note there is very limited space for Pre-K - it's almost FULL). The dates are June 17-21st

(6:00 to 8:15 PM each night) - we ask that ALL participants arrive at 5:40 PM on Day 1! You can help in 3 ways: 1) DONATION BOARD - please see the VBS Board in the hallway (some items need to be in by May 26th deadline, and the Snack items will be posted very soon) - please help us be all stocked and ready to dive in ... Check with Chari Burtner about helping the Decorating team (especially Sun. June 9th and the day after) - please call Erika Manges with other questions - 724-351-2527. 2) Get the WORD OUT - it's important people pre-register now. Finally, 3) please PRAY - we ask everyone to please KEEP praying every day for this ministry to the community in Christ's name. Thank you!

A reminder to all volunteers to make sure their State Clearances are up to date. If 5 years old (or more), you will need to update both of them: Criminal Bkgd.

Heavenly Father,
today I pray in Jesus' name
for your strength, guidance, and provision for VBS

SUN: Supply all of the resources—both financial and the volunteer force—needed for a VBS that will draw children closer to you.
"And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:19).

MON: Mold the hearts and minds of every leader and volunteer so that we are able to embrace your beautiful vision for VBS.
"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts" (Isaiah 55:9).

TUES: Transform the lives of children as they experience your love and walk with you in an eternal relationship with Jesus Christ.
"And this is eternal life, that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent" (John 17:3).

wed: Welcome unchurched children and families in our community to our VBS, our church, and into a relationship with you.
"Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14).

Thurs: Touch the hearts of people in our congregation to step into needed volunteer roles to reach as many children as possible.
"So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields" (Matthew 9:38).

Fri: Form meaningful friendships among children and volunteers, and (most of all) help everyone participating to develop a deep friendship with you.
"Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God" (1 John 4:7).

sat: Strengthen our VBS coordinator and each leader who is planning and preparing for this outreach.
"The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped" (Psalm 28:7).

You are invited to use this guide to pray each day for one VBS need.

Youth Group

So, we're "winding down" as we approach the close of the school year, but we're going out with a "bang," as they say. On April 14, we tried a new game – "water balloon tennis" (see pictures). On April 21st, we had a bike outing to Roaring Run Trail in Apollo (thanks to Matt Wehrle, Alice Knopfel and Nate Manges for organizing). On April 28th, we had a big bunch for Zone 28 (arcade and laser tag). We'll finish off in early May, but help us get the word out for the Fall – we'll start again in September helping with fundraising with parking for home games and then start meetings in late September (maybe including the American Revival on the Kelly Farm in Sarver on Sat. Sept. 28th). During the summer, please pray for the students to continue to grow in their faith, including in the "off months" of summer. Finally, I want to once more thank our amazing adult volunteers and supporters – all those who help with evening programming, the clean-up, the transport, the snacks ... the dozen different aspects that make this a successful ministry. God bless ALL of you. Gratefully – Pastor Brian.

VBS Board: The scavenger hunt is on! Thank you all who have taken slips so far. The containers for you to start bringing items in will be in the hallway by May 5th. Please remember to mark your item if you want it returned to you! Those of you waiting for the snack list it will be up on Sunday the 26th.

What are they going to do with all those jelly fish? They are up for adoption! There will be more jelly fish used to decorate the downstairs hallway as well. In total there are 32 jellyfish and they are all up for adoption. The small jelly fish are $10 and the few larger ones are $20. You can adopt now and pick up after VBS! You may notice a few of them already have small tags on them. If one or two really speak to you let Wiebke know she has the tags to reserve them with her on Sunday. Please note the safety eyes used on the jelly fish are rated for children 3 and up.

The two octopus, seal, dolphins and whale shark? Those will be up for auction after VBS. Details to follow! All funds raised are going to the Capital Campaign.

AV Team: Did you know:

On average we have 9 people join us for worship via Zoom and 5 people watching us live on Facebook every Sunday. The slide shows that are used during worship can take anywhere from 3 to 8 hours to put together. The sound team monitors the sound in the church and the sound on Zoom so everyone can hear the word of God. Every worship requires three people to run these elements together to present the worship service in house and virtually.

The AV team has worked hard to create a balanced schedule so the members can have time where they can worship in the pew with you, sing in the choir and even help with children's church! This is why we need two more helpers for the sound team. Right now we have three volunteers so their rotation is very limited. Please prayerfully consider joining the sound team. No technological experience necessary! We will train.

Jason Schwartz on his experience in the “God & Church” Scout program: “What I learned while in our classes with Rev. Brian was that Jesus had to deal with the same kind of issues we deal with in our lives. Jesus got mad (John 2), he got in trouble with his parents when he disappeared to the temple. And most importantly, he had to deal with people not believing in him. Something I was surprised about was how people are so different. Some people will do good and say they are doing this for God but truly don’t believe (or are just doing the deed for recognition). While there are some that will do good and never need to be recognized or tell people why they are doing it, because they know that God sees them, and that is all they need.

One thing that I am going to continue to do is read the Bible and learn more about God, my Lord and Savior. Thank you also to Rev. Brian, Mr. Jason Taylor, and my mom for all your time and support you gave to Jacob, Owen and myself through this journey.”

Origins (formerly TryLife) Tuesday!

On the second Tuesday of the month groups of volunteers go to Origins (formerly TryLife) to help organize donations. We start at 5 and usually end around 7:30. This is a way we can all support the families in our community that need a little extra help. Generally we are asked to each take a bin of clothing, sort through them to ensure the right size and clothing type are in the bin, and put everything back neatly. There are counters and chairs to help accommodate those that cannot stand for prolonged periods of time. Those who have volunteered have found this opportunity a great way to be the hands and feet that help others and as an added bonus spend time with friends they know or getting to know members of the church they don't know. The sign up sheet has migrated to the hallway by the library while the VBS board is up. For May 14th the volunteers are Sandy Ankney, Vince and Sandy Appleman, Alice Knopfel and Joyce Yurko. Please consider signing up to join them or adding your name to one of the other dates listed. If you have any questions please see Pastor Brian, Wiebke or Matt Wehrle.
