

Fred H. Bouck

1881-1975

Fred H. Bouck, 94, Elkton, died Friday at his home after suffering an apparent heart attack.

Mr. Bouck was born September 4, 1881 in Elkton, where he was a lifelong resident.

He and Lydia R. Severn were married September 28, 1904. Mrs. Bouck preceded her husband in death March 26, 1966.

Mr. Bouck was a retired contractor and carpenter. He was a past member of the Odd Fellow Lodge, Elkton.

Surviving are two sons, Clayton, Bad Axe, and Glen, Detroit; three grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Monday in the Huron Memorial Chapel, Elkton. The Rev. George Nantz, pastor of the Elkton Missionary Church, officiated. Burial was in the Coifax Cemetery, Bad Axe.