Credit is not given for holidays, when the center is closed for training, inclement weather and/or power outages, regular weekly tuition is due. Tuition payments are to be made in advance of services rendered. If your child attends Lil' Bloomers on a full-time basis (5 days per week), full payment is due on Monday morning for that current week. If your child attends Lil' Bloomers on a part-time basis (2 or 3 days per week), payment is due the morning of the first day he/she attends.

A child's regular tuition agreement amount will be charged each week if your child attends any portion of the week. An exception is made for an extended period of absence, such as a vacation, or prolonged illness of 5 consecutive days. For these situations, a parent/guardian can choose to hold their child's spot with a charge of half of their regular tuition agreement amount, up to two weeks per year. This time cannot be carried into the following year.
