

BCC Monthly meeting May 2nd:

7:00 Meeting called to order by Club President Roger Howell

7:05: Meeting minutes accepted with correction that capt billiys was april 14th not 4th.

7:15: Rino introduced Keith Herrington, new member, 2014 C7 Z51 3LT and 76 Trans am 4 spd. Had a viper but sold it.

Rino mentioned we currently are at 29 members attending the picnic and would like to see more people attend. Rino mentioned said you can pay upfront at the picnic but Greg needs names and date of births to get clearance for attendees. Meeting at Target on Rt 17 off I-95, times are listed on website and facebook May 18th.

Gourmeltz this Friday however since it started this year every show has been rained out.

Zips at Saturday May 4th

Lagrange winery/car show is Sunday May 5th

7:15: Treasury report:$3,305.98 two transactions, deposit on 4/11/19 of $105 due payments and on 4/26/19 of $30 for picnic payment

7:20: Joke of the month

7:20 Tech talk: Things to make sure you have in your car: tire gauge, jacket puck allows a car to be jacked up, large socket wrench, a good hammer aka persuader, a caliper clamp.

Roger mentioned that because of the laws coming out Maryland and some other state have hands free laws and will result in potential jail time if caught using a device that's not hands free.

7:25: Old business: Christmas party at Outback at 15th of December, Roger is getting food and drinks set up for us and we got the location at no cost.

Club banner is up at the Museum and flying strong and proud, old one should be arriving any day

Cruz in will be held at Radley's for 2019.

7:30 New Business and Upcoming

The club is still looking for volunteers to work with the POC of the Cruz in to ensure the event is as spectacular as 2018.

Adventure brewing cruz in 8-10 am May 11th.

Due to potential rain no cruz up to Zips, club members will drive up on their own.

May 25th Vettes for Vets, Albert is POC

Invitation by Virginia Corvette club to attend Vets at Sedalia on June 8th.

Floor opened at 7:47

Street outlaws having races at Maryland International Raceway this weekend.

Roger announced that the club lost Bob Riley a passionate member of the club and put a motion to get a brick to be laid at the National Corvette Museum, motion carried at 7:54

Motion to close meeting accepted at 7:55pm